The Class of '54 presented their banquet on May 9, 1953. The theme was "Undersea Rhapsody."

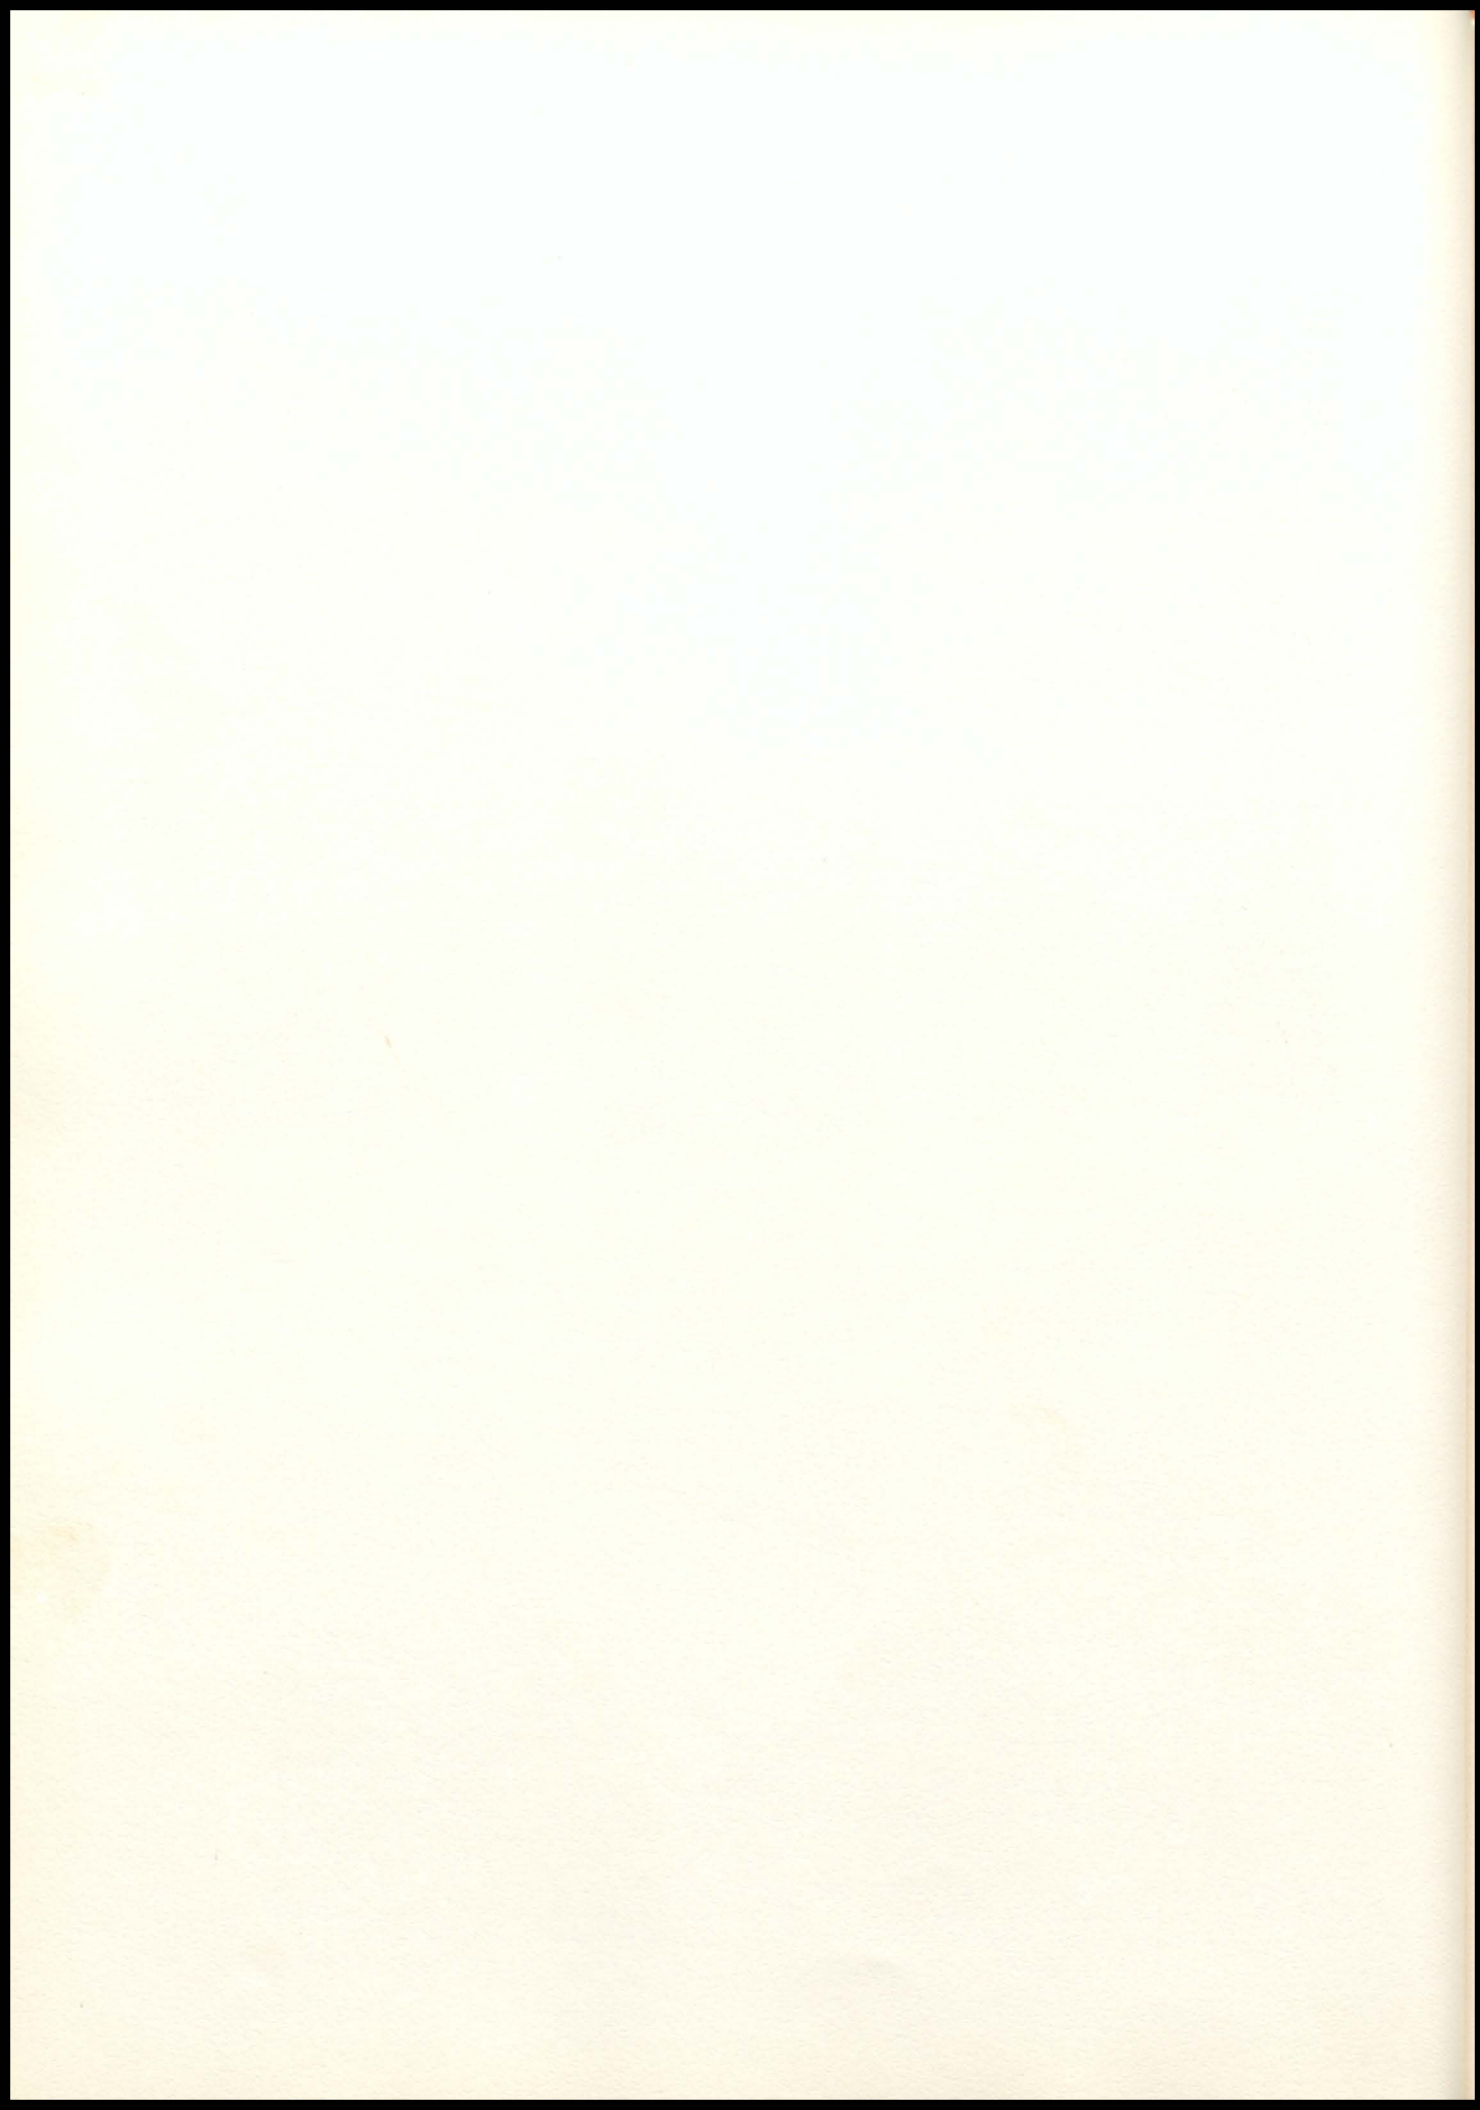

The gym was decorated with blue and green streamers forming the surface of the sea. Colorful fish and other undersea creatures were scattered around throughout the decorations. These fish were drawn and painted by members of the class.

A sunken treasure chest was placed along the east wall. Gold fishnets and sea shells added to the striking effect.

The center of the decorations was a complete under sea scene at one end of the gym. Coral reefs and other growths were arranged around a rock formation. White fish nets and seaweed completed the theme.

Junior Class Play

"HANDYMAN"

On November 13th, at 1:00 and 8:00 p.m. the Junior class of SHS under the direction of Miss Jeanette Halbach, presented a three act comedy entitled "HANDY MAN".

The action of the play takes place in the Miller living room, in a small university town. The time is the present. Trouble begins when Mitzi Miller moves Joe Robertson, a university student, into their basement room without her parents' permission. To win her mother's consent Mitzi says that Joe has a wife and baby in the country. Actually Joe has neither a wife or baby.

Mrs. Miller finally consents to let Joe stay when she finds out that he is a "handy man".

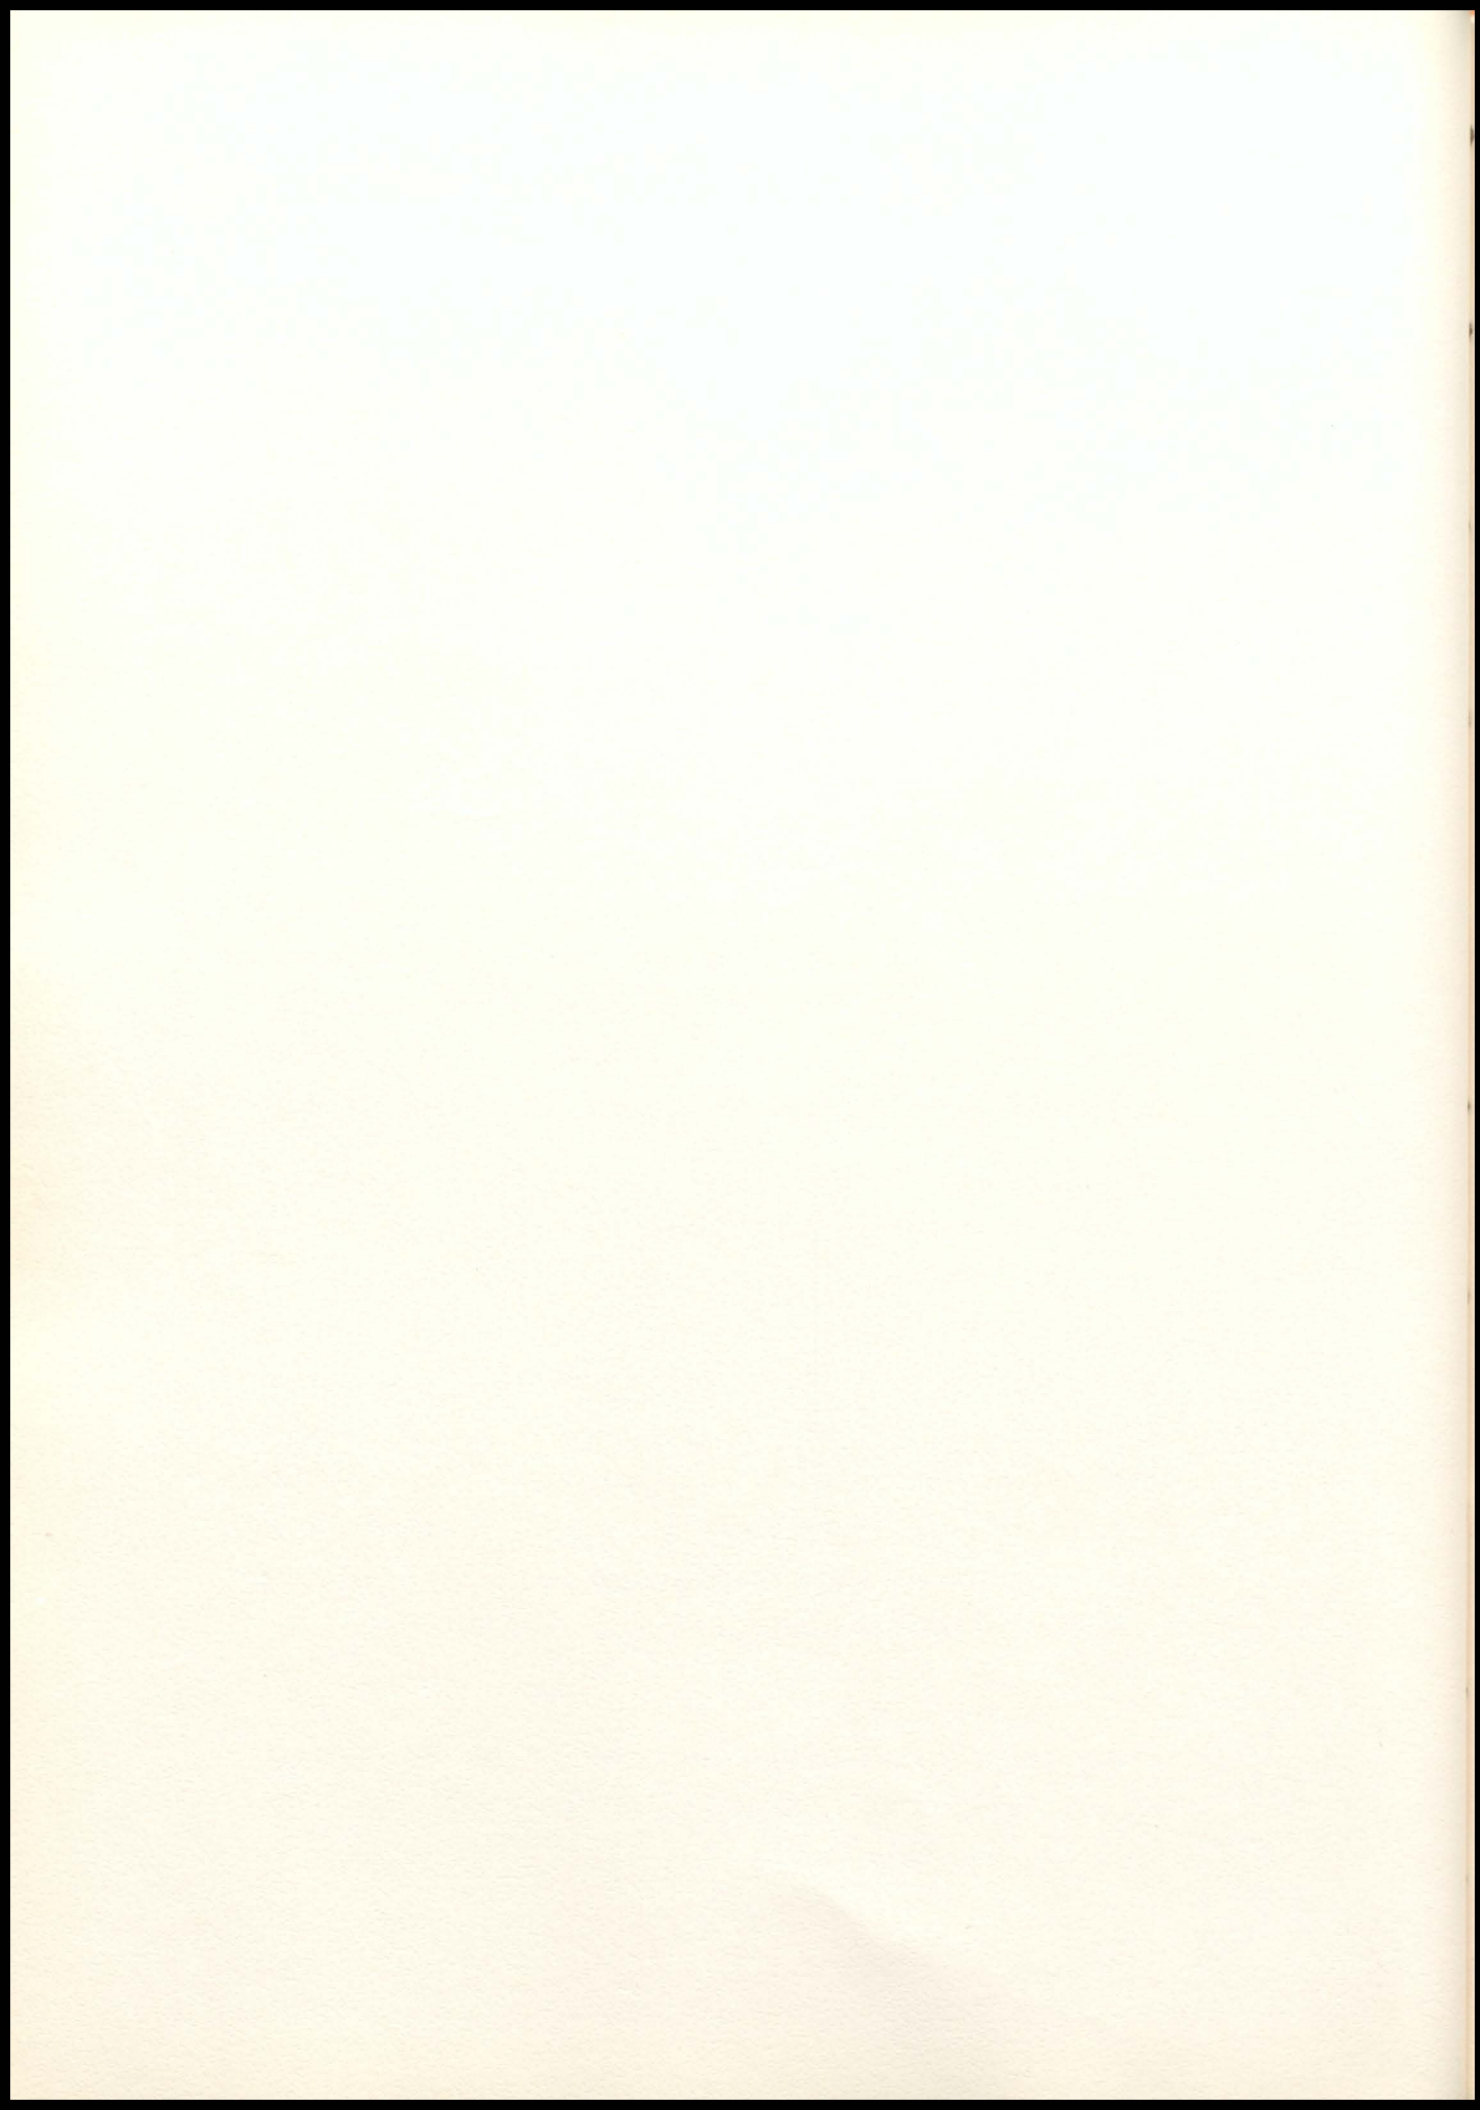

Things become really complicated but amusing when Joe's mother comes to visit him and finds him with a "wife and baby".

After some tumultuous happenings and explanations everything is forgiven and the play ends happily for everyone.

1953 FOOTBALL SEASON

On August 24th, thirty-two gridgers reported for football practice. Practicing twice a day, the squad prepared for their opener with Kingsley. Kingsley won on scoring passes from Higgenbottom to Roepke. Sutherland's tally came on a two yard plunge by Rog Haydter. Sutherland was on the Kingsley 8 yard stripe with first and ten late in the fourth quarter, but a clipping penalty nullified a possible touchdown. The game ended with Kingsley 12, Sutherland 7.

In the first conference game which was with Aurelia, the Tigers jumped into an early lead on a 27 yard pass from Olhausen to Woolston. Aurelia came back strong to push across 19 points before the half ended. The second half was scoreless with neither team threatening.

A week later the Tigers lost their second conference game to Primghar by a score of 20-0. As the first half came to an end Primghar led 6-0. The Tiger defense held Primghar in check most of the time. In the second half Primghar came back to score once in each of the remaining periods.

The undefeated Hartley Hawks were met by a hard charging Sutherland line, but finally managed to pull out a 15-0 victory over the Tigers. A sustained drive by the Tigers was halted deep in Hartley territory as the first half came to an end, with Hartley leading 7-0. In the final half Hartley pushed across a touchdown on a short plunge by Boetel and succeeded in catching Jim Olhausen in the end zone for a safety.

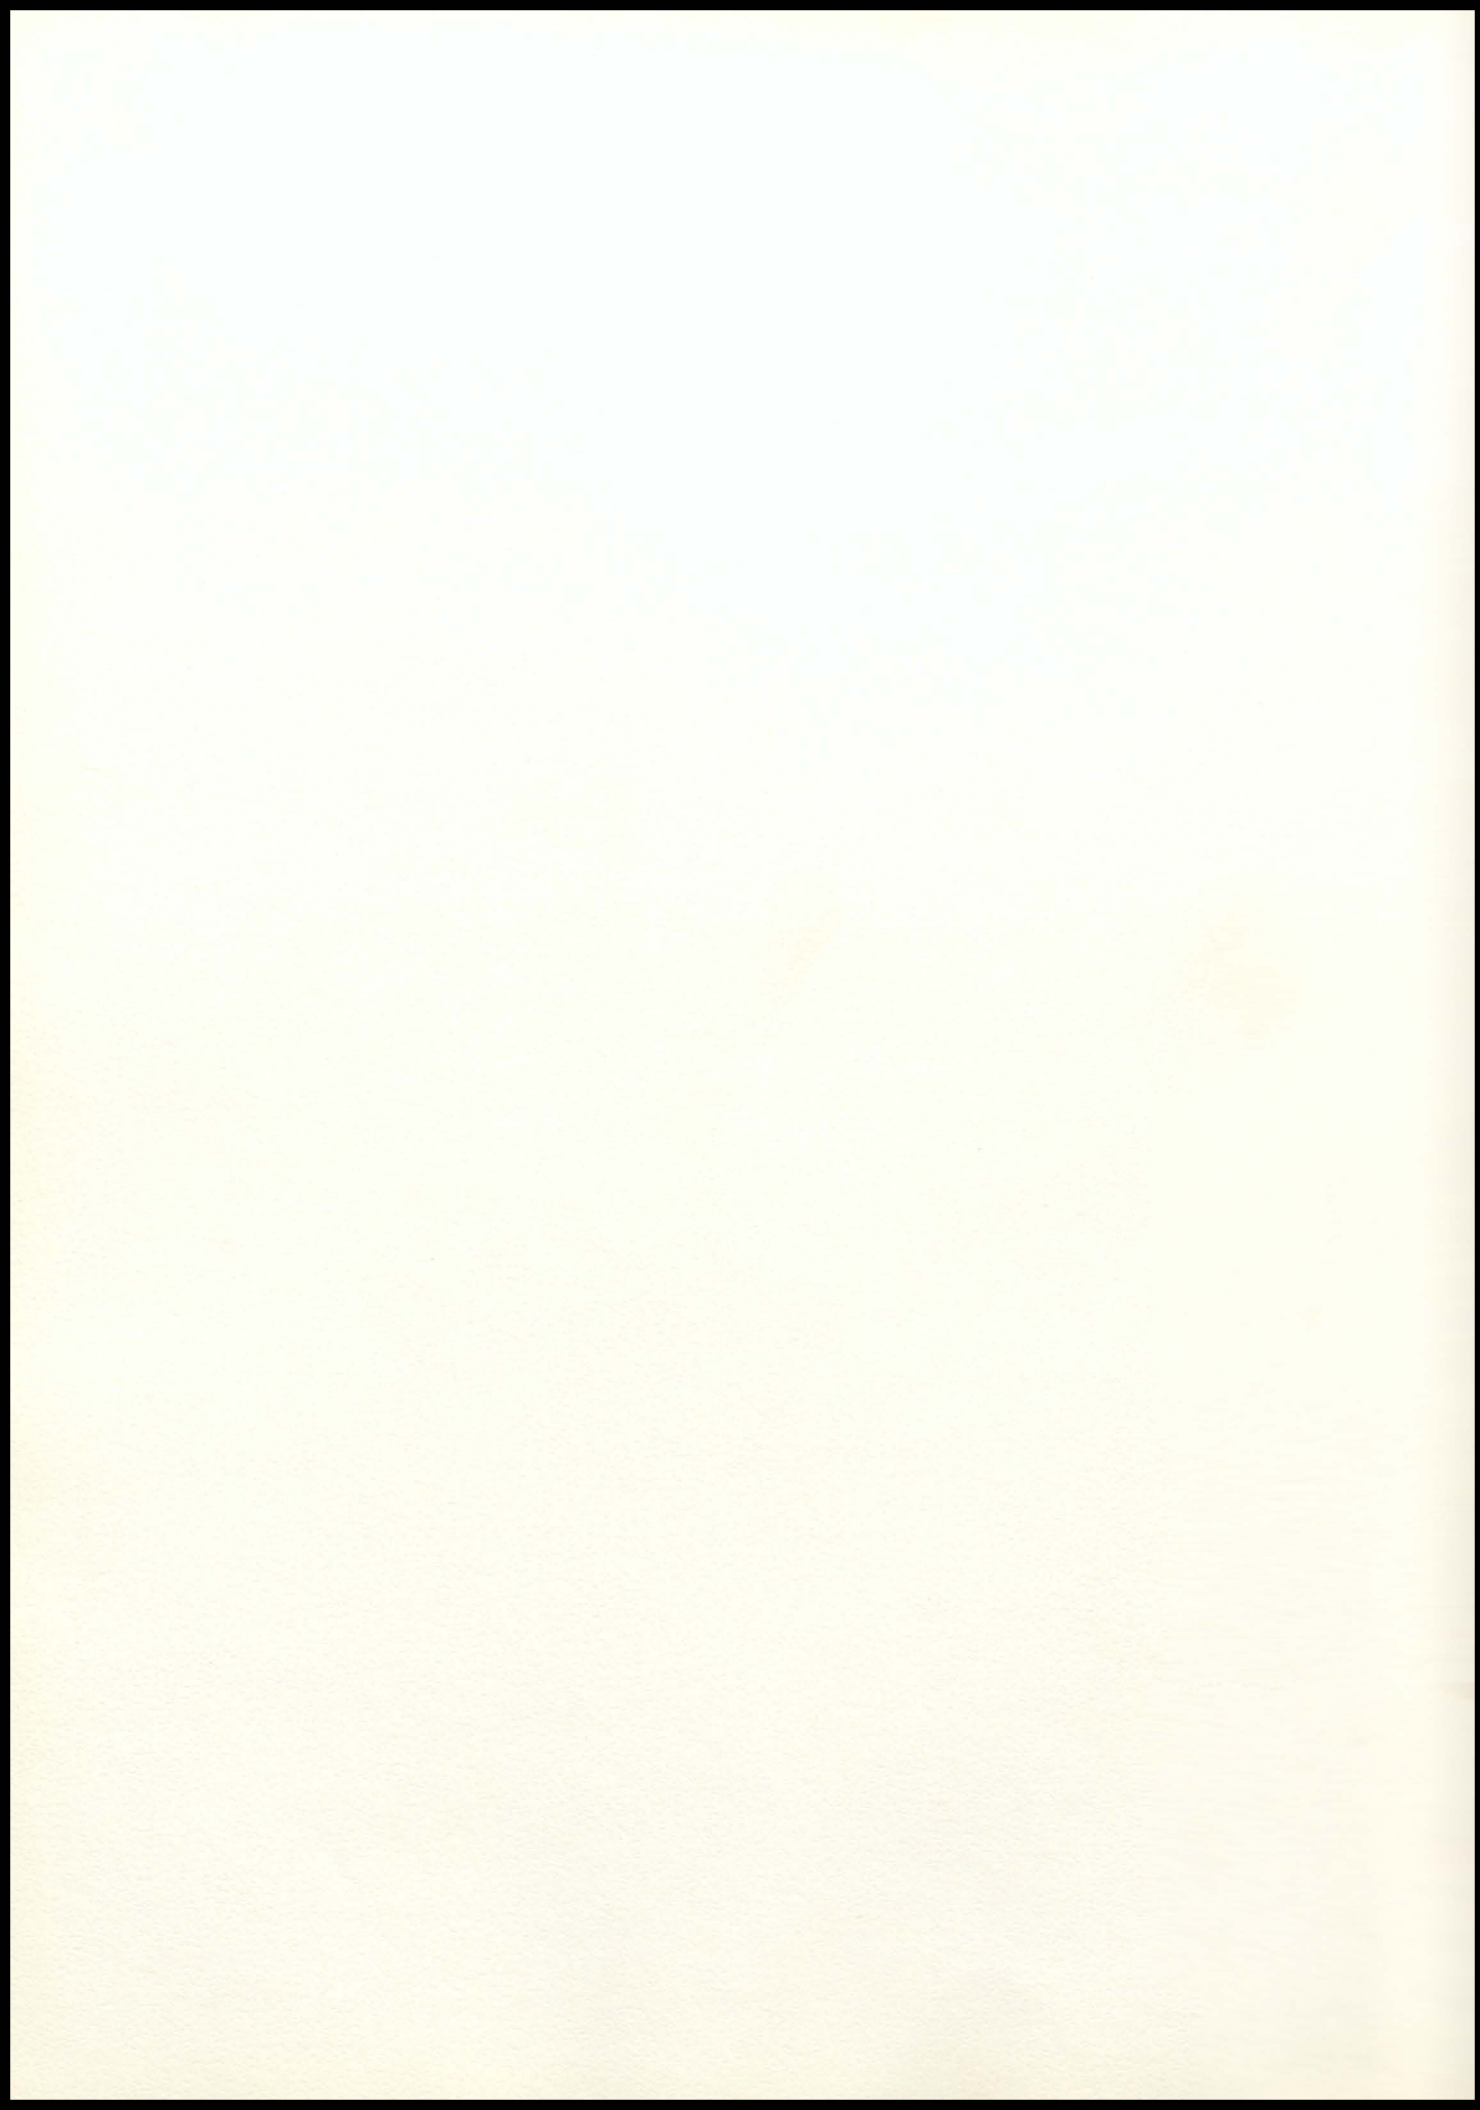

The Sutherland Tigers inspired by a large Homecoming crowd, rolled over Sanborn for a 13-0 victory. The Sutherland touchdowns were pushed over in quick succession and a pass added the extra point. The Tigers held the Bulldogs to a total of 15 yards.

The Tigers journeyed to Milford to play at the Pioneer Homecoming in a downpour that lasted the entire length of the game. When the first half ended the Tigers were ahead 7-0, as a result of a long pass to Woolston and a series of line plunges. Neither team scored in the third period. In the fourth period a Milford back was caught in the end zone for a safety. Final score, 9-0.

The Tigers walked off with a third consecutive conference victory of the season when they dropped the Alta Cyclones 12-7. The Tigers scored two touchdowns in the first half on plunges by Drefke and Sweeney. Alta's only touchdown was made on an accidental pass from Karen Johnson to Bob Endersbe. A pass from Johnson to Endersbe accounted for the extra point.

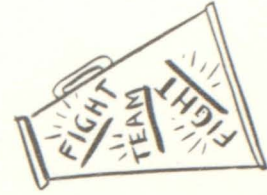

The Sutherland Tigers gained a tie with the Paullina Panthers to run their unbeaten string to four games. The Paullina touchdown came after Melles picked up a Salzkorn fumble and ran to the Tigers 20 yard line. Bill Hatfield scored from the ten yard stripe four plays later. Bill Louscher tried the middle of the line for the extra point but was unsuccessful. A pass from Sweeney to Woolston resulted in a Tiger touchdown. Hill missed the extra point by inches as the second half ended.

The Tigers were defeated by Sioux Rapids 13-0 in their last game. The Tigers outplayed their opponents the first half, threatening twice, but unable to score either time. At the half, Sioux Rapids received and went all the way for a touchdown, without giving up the ball. Late in the fourth quarter they scored another touchdown after a penalty put them on the two yard line.

S.H.S. HOMECOMING

The Homecoming festivities started slowly. Everyone was thinking of ideas for their floats and wondering who the King and Queen would be. The excitement increased as floats were decided on and work started. On Monday morning before the game, an announcement was made naming the ten Seniors who were candidates for King and Queen.

On Thursday night, Homecoming officially started with the bonfire. After pep talks by Rich Hill, Coach Wickstrom and Gayle Jennings, the football boys staged the traditional "murder" scene, by dumping the Sanborn "dummy" on the bonfire. The pepband was on hand to play some lively marches and the school song.

On Friday morning classes were held as usual but there was little interest in studies. Everyone was thinking about Homecoming. After dinner the band practiced, the students finished decorating the floats, and everyone was ready for the parade.

The pep meeting was held at 2:30 in the high school auditorium. The alumni speakers were Winifred Jones and John Ginger. Pep talks were also given by Coach Wickstrom, Jerry Jones, a member of the squad, and Mr. Rogness.

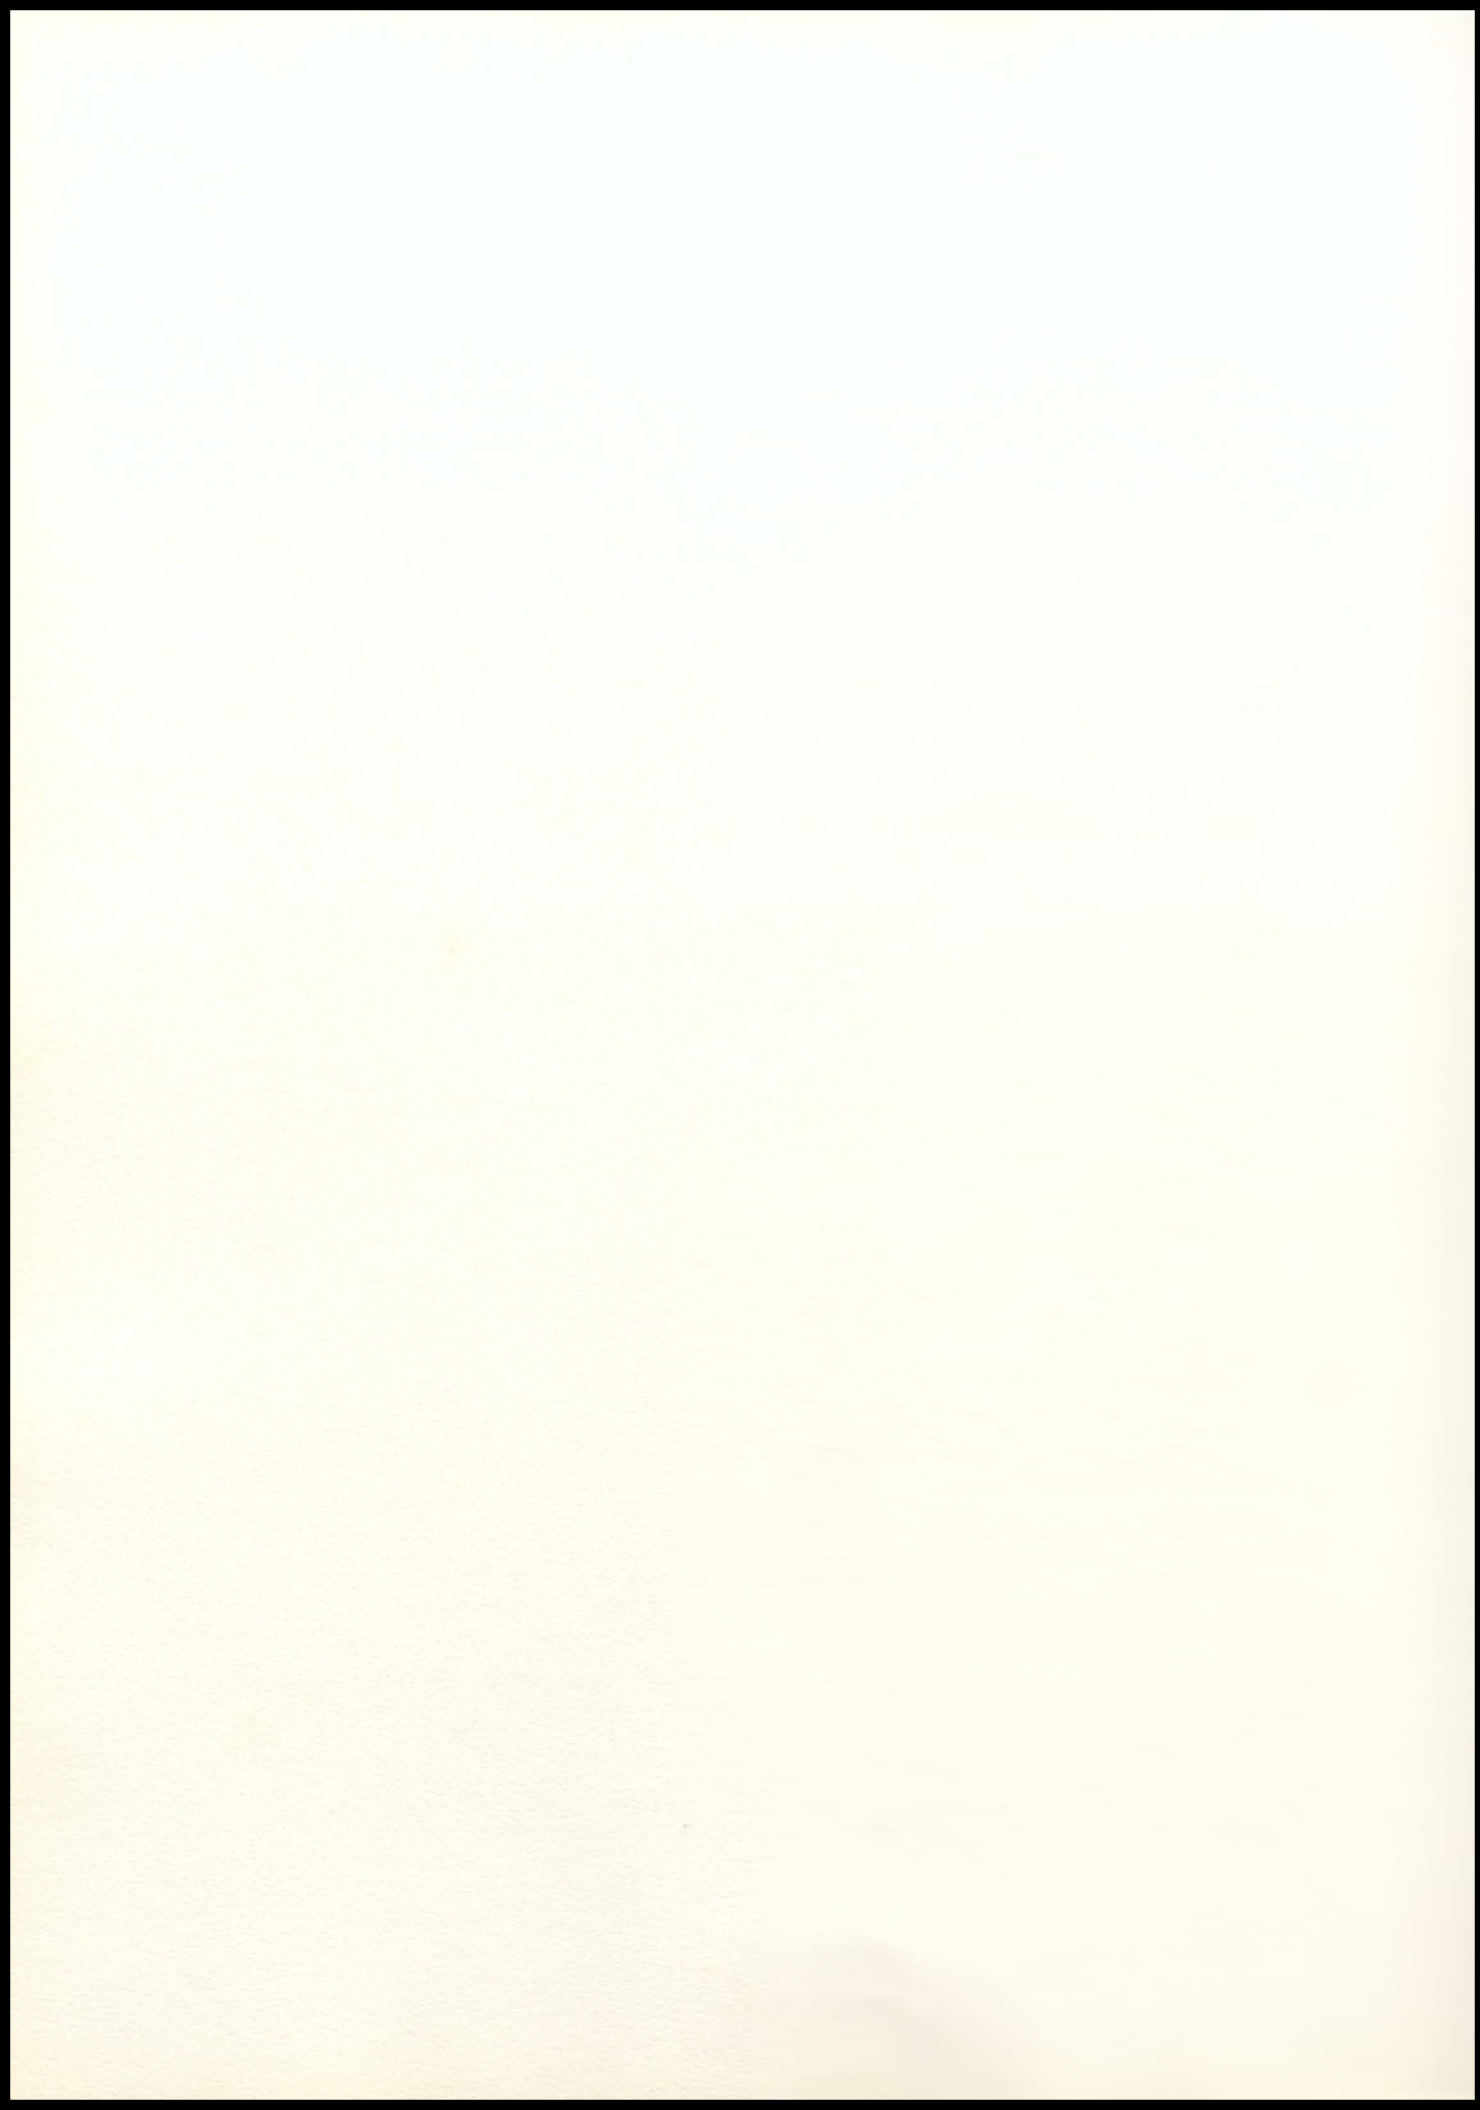

About 3:15, the parade formed in front of the school house. Led by the band, the parade consisted of the Queen and her attendants, the football boys and the cheerleaders, the floats, and the grade school pupils and their decorated bicycles and floats. At the downtown intersection, the band formed a large circle and the cheerleaders did some yells.

At 7:30 the floats paraded around the football field. The ratings were announced with the Sophomore float, "Winging to Victory" receiving first; the Senior Float, "Sailing to Victory" taking second; and the Junior Float, "Our Boys Will Shine" winning third place.

After the floats left the field. the band led the Queen's car around the field. In front of the Sutherland bleachers, the band divided to form an honor guard as the King, Dick Burgeson, escorted his Queen, Verlene Kolln to Mr. Robinson, the High-School principal, who presented them to Mr. Flinders, the President of the School Board. Mr. Flinders then took the crowns from the crown bearers, Steve Wilson and Annette Davis, and crowned Dick and Verlene King and Queen of Homecoming. Attendants to the Royal couple were Alice Phillips and Richard Hill, Euea Jebsen and Ronald Woolston, Gayle Jennings and Don Moding, and Dianne Metz and Jerry Jones.

The most important event in Homecoming, to many, was our defeat of Sanborn, 13-0. The two touchdowns were made in the second period. A greatly improved Tiger team held the Sanborn Bulldogs to almost no net gain. The winning of the game was considered to be the highlight of the 1953 Homecoming activities.

After the game, the Homecoming dance was held in the gymnasium. The names of the football players and their numbers on orange jerseys were arranged on the east wall around a big football. The four cheerleaders were also represented by four girls in orange and black outfits. Music was furnished by Pete's Swing Band of Marcus. As the dance ended, everyone agreed that the 1953 Homecoming had been the happiest and most successful ever.

Class Will

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the pleasure of appearing before you for the purpose of presenting the will of the Senior Class of 1954 of Sutherland High School.

When we were assigned the task of preparing a class will, we discovered that we had no gold, silver, jewels, or other valuable possessions, we only have items of high sentimental value. The following was adopted as our last will and testament.

ITEM I:

To the faculty we will and bequeath the memories of our co-operative class.

To the Juniors we will and bequeath our ability to have such wonderful class parties. Have fun, kids.

To the Sophomores we will and bequeath our sense of humor. It has always been an asset to us.

To the Freshmen we will and bequeath our ability to be in all activities musical and athletic. Activities are what make school interesting.

ITEM II:

I, Dick Burgeson, do will and bequeath the nick-name "Speed" to you Arthur ~~Hall~~bauer. You never know where it will get you, Art.

ITEM III:

I, Don Case, do will and bequeath my freckles to you, Virginia Steele. The more the merrier, you know.

ITEM IV:

I, Shirley DeBoom, do will and bequeath my never ending giggle to Mary Streufert. I hope it amuses your class as it has mine.

ITEM V:

I, Sylvia Deiterman, do will and bequeath my belief in ghosts to you Margie Orthmann, or are you already convinced?

ITEM VI:

I, Nancy Green, do will and bequeath my ability to be a feature writer, to you, Sandy Sauter. I hope your news is as interesting as mine was.

ITEM VII:

I, Evelyn Guthridge, do will and bequeath my ability to stay home to you Roger Haydter. Try it once, it's not so bad.

ITEM VIII:

I, Kenneth Heckert, do will and bequeath my "car" to you, Loren Zoet. I hope you will be able to pick up as many girls as I have.

ITEM IX:

I, Rich Hill, do will and bequeath my ability to get good grades without any studying on my part, to you, Barbara Warren. I have used the spare time for much more interesting activities. I hope you will too.

ITEM X:

I, Euenia Jepsen, do will and bequeath my ability to work long hours and take complaints to you Roberta Munson. You'll really need it when you are editor, Bert

ITEM XI:

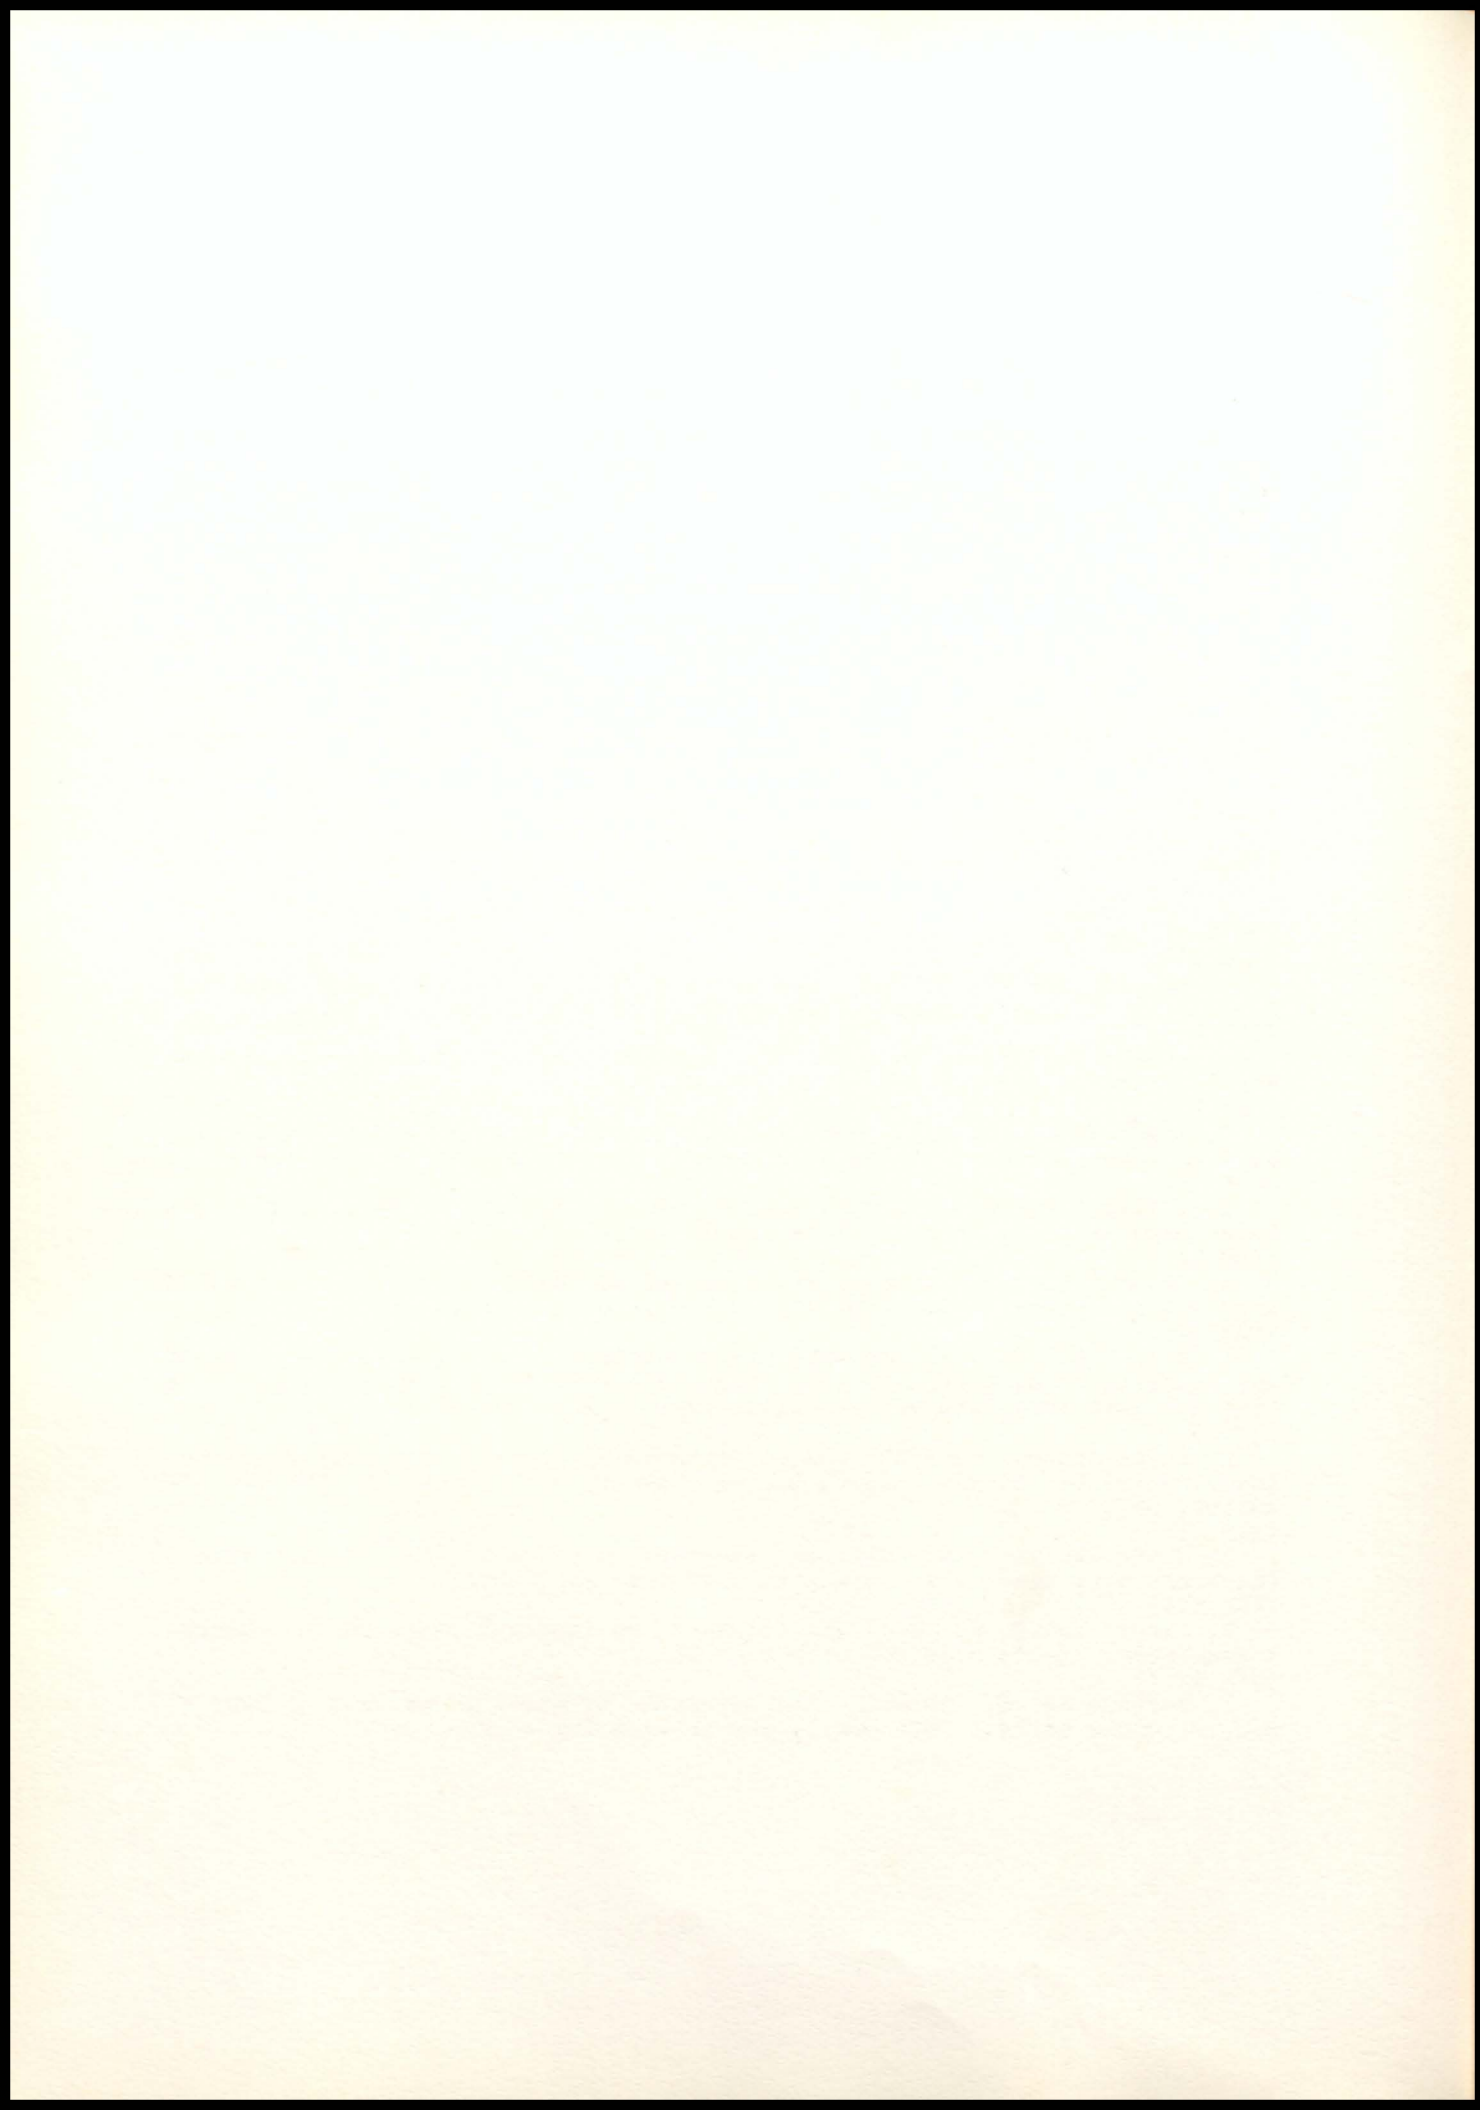

I, Gayle Jennings, do will and bequeath my poise to you, Phyllis Yates. There are many times when it may be useful to you, Phyllis.

ITEM XII:

I, Jerry Jones, do will and bequeath my football suit to you, George Regennitter. Let's hope you grow into it.

ITEM XIII:

I, Verlene Kolln, do will and bequeath my ability to talk to boys to you, Patricia Barry. They really are quite a lot of fun, Pat.

ITEM XIV:

I, Bob Lange, do will and bequeath my boyish blush to you, Nancy Marshall. This will make your giggles complete.

ITEM XV:

I, Lorraine Lohff, do will and bequeath my ability to win arguments from Dick Burgeson to you, Margie Munson. I hope this will always benefit you.

ITEM XVI:

I, Dianne Metz, do will and bequeath my ability to be late to you, Dwayne Wohlert. Now we'll both be ready at the same time.

ITEM XVII:

I, Bonnie Miller, do will and bequeath my love of dancing to you, Allyn Davis. Dancing leads the way to romance, you know.

ITEM XVIII:

I, Don Moding, do will and bequeath my ability to have a good time to you, John Gilbert. May your Senior year be as enjoyable as mine has been.

ITEM XIX:

I, Ken Petersen, do will and bequeath my ability to entertain the crowd to you, Marjean Bandholz. I'm sure this will brighten up your life as it has mine.

ITEM XX:

I, Alice Phillips, do will and bequeath my singing success to you, Marlene Munson. I hope you win as many I's as I have.

ITEM XXI:

I, Ruth Ann Otten, do will and bequeath my seat in the back of the assembly to you, Jack Cooper. There you will be able to get by with more.

ITEM XXII:

We, Dallas and Derald Streufert, do will and bequeath our ability to be quietly present to you, Joe Sweeney and you, Bill Burns. Need we say more!

ITEM XXIII:

I, Ronnie Sohn, do will and bequeath my grades to you, Larry Drefke. They're not the best, but they'll keep you eligible.

ITEM XXIV:

I, Ronnie Swenson, do will and bequeath my phone numbers to you, Wendy Amendt. They may never notice the difference, Wendy.

ITEM XXV:

I, Jim Tharp, do will and bequeath my ability to be a dairy farmer to you, Lois Link. Together we could make a fortune.

ITEM XXVI:

I, Beverly Warren, do will and bequeath my ability to be seen but not always heard, to you, Judy Jennings. You'll still be noticed.

ITEM XXVII:

I, Ronnie Woolston, do will and bequeath my ability to pester girls to you, Duane Ahrens. This has been very amusing to me. I hope you will enjoy it, Duane.

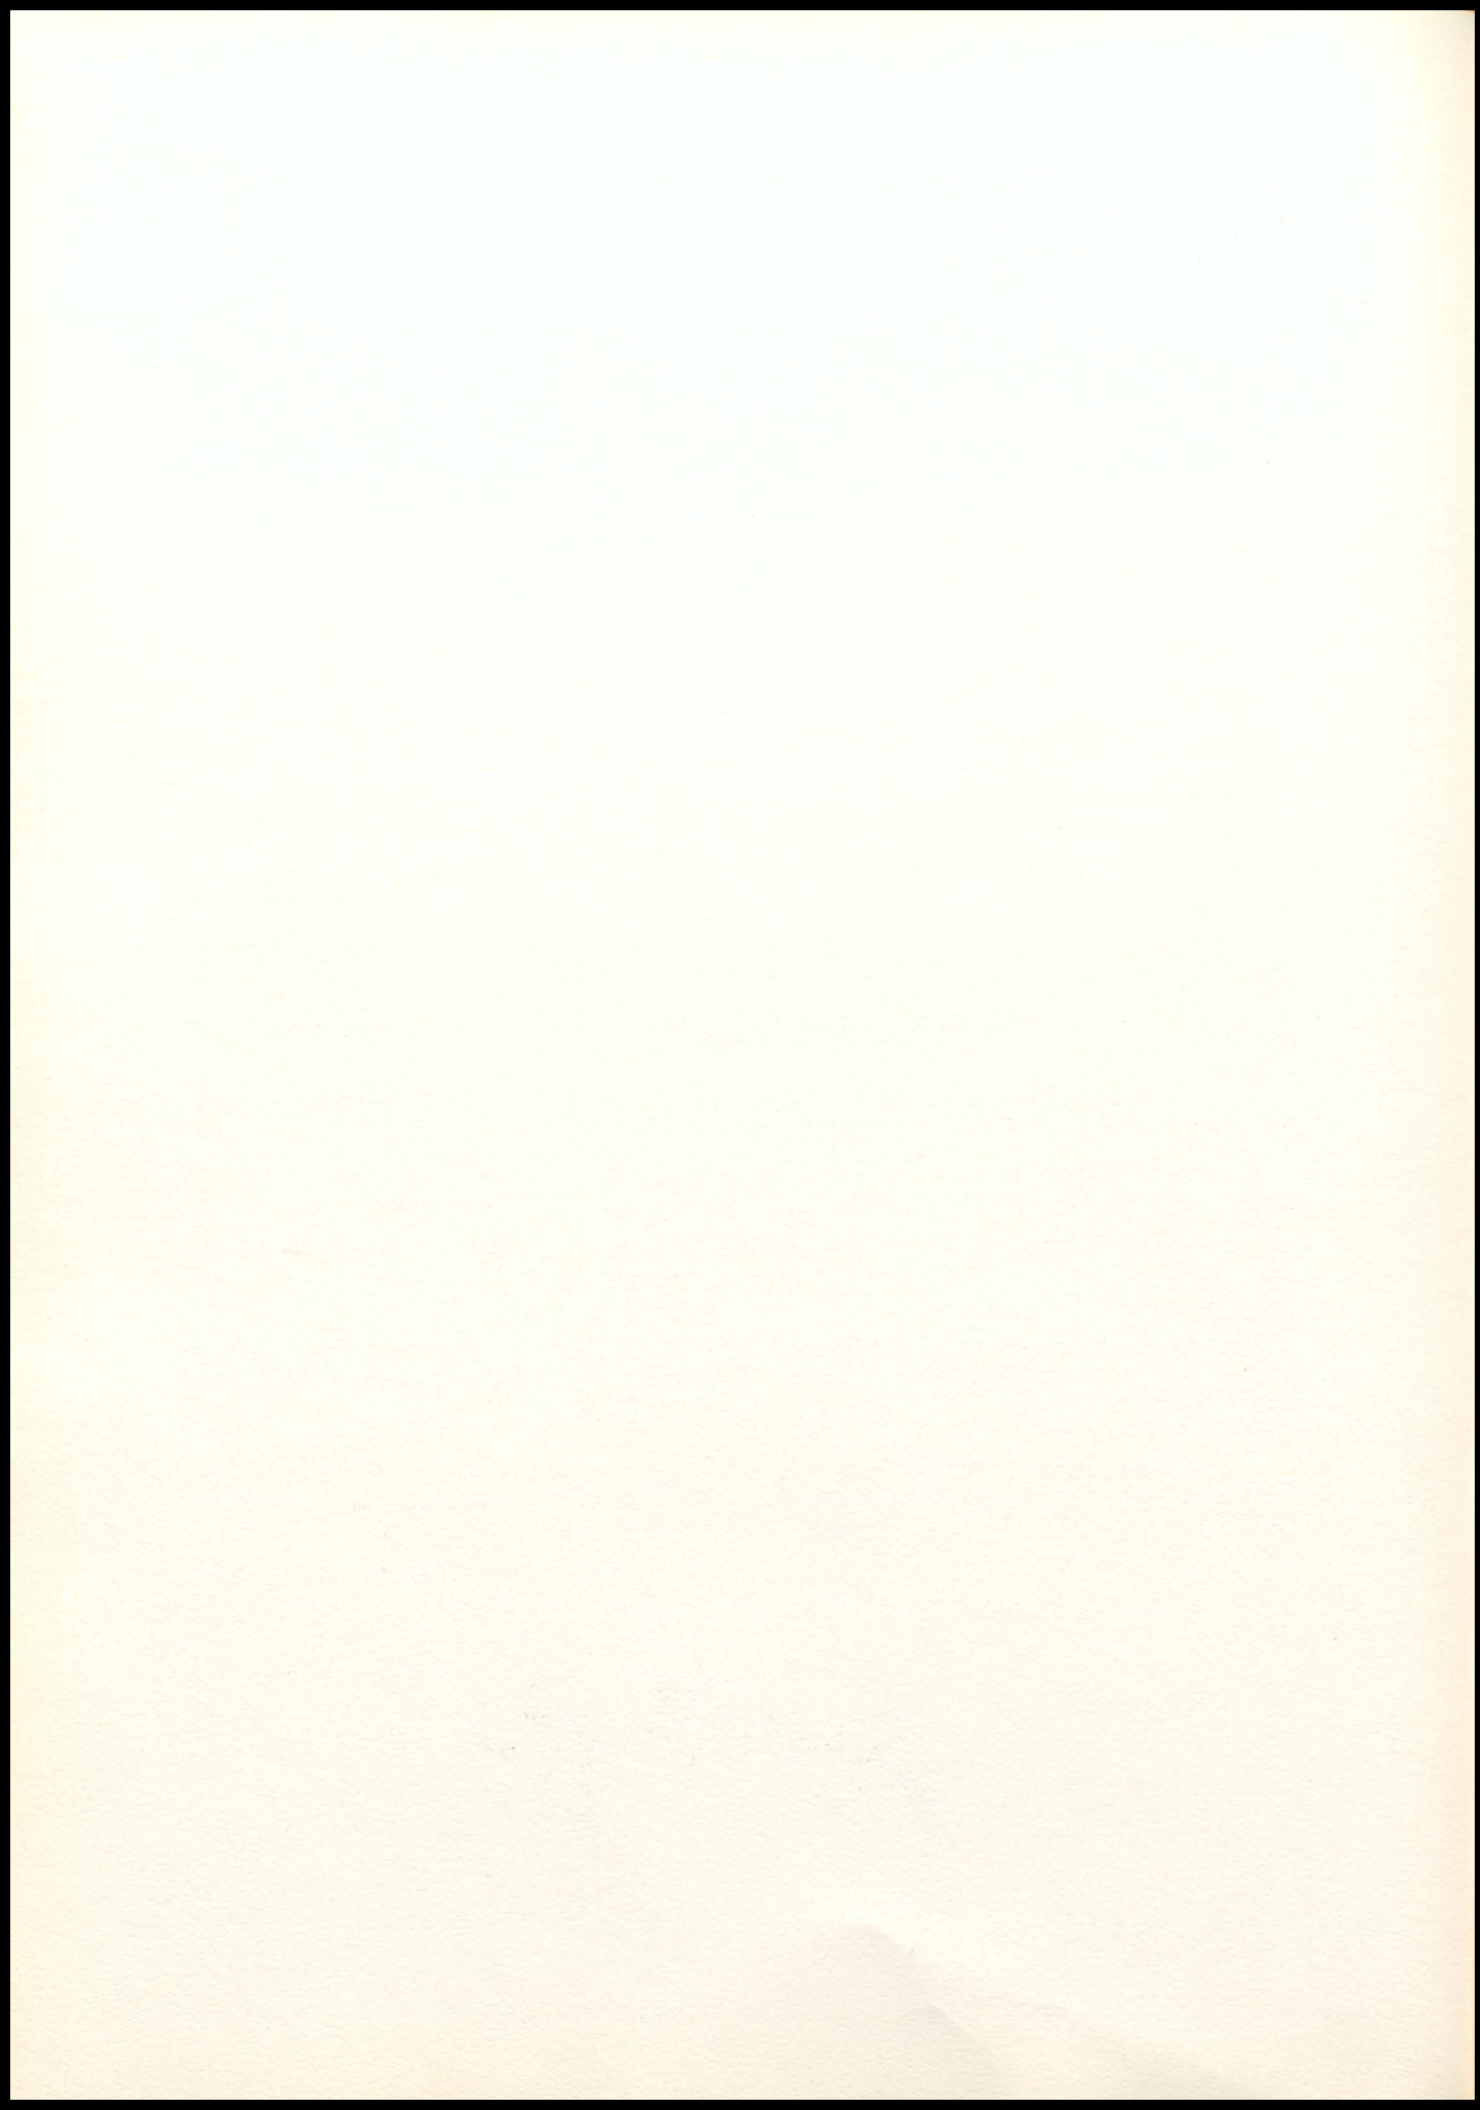

ITEM XXVIII:

In conclusion, we, the Class of "54", do will and bequeath the heating system in the school back to the Africans, who must have designed it for their climate.

In witness thereof, we the Class of 1954, the testators, have to this, our last will and testament written on two sheets of parchment, set our hands and sealed this--one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four.
