HOMECOMING

Homecoming activities began with making plans for the floats. After the plans were made and committees were chosen the work began down in the bus barn. Every night after supper, students and teachers alike were working, in an attempt to get all floats finished by the big night.

Thursday night a big bonfire was held. Completed and in the bus barn were the five floats: the Seniors'--"Engaged in Victory" the Juniors'--"Paging a Victory," the Sophomores'--"It's a Cinch," the Freshmans'--"Playing a Victory," and the Pep Clubs'--"Rolling to Victory." The Junior-High float--"Toasting a Victory" was also completed.

With sirens blowing and everyone cheering the football boys were driven on the field in the fire trucks. The pep band played and pep talks were given. The cheerleaders led some yells to get everyone in the spirit for a victorious homecoming.

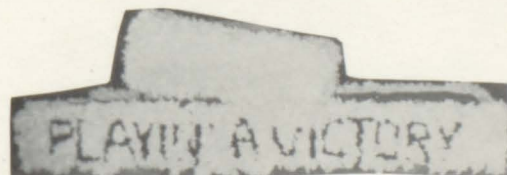

On Friday afternoon at one o'clock the pep meeting got under way. As a special treat the mixed quartettes combined and sang "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean." Sherryl Ploeger was in charge of the pep meeting and she announced the King and Queen for 1957. Glenda Frerk reigned as Queen and Jim Ahrens as King over the Homecoming festivities. Attendants were: Jean Jordan, Diane Lohff, Janet Kopp, and Beverly Jebson. The boys chosen as Attendants were: Herman Rahbausch, Tom Sweeney, Ronnie Meyer, and Gene Bintz.

After more pep talks, more yells, and the school song, the pep meeting came to a close and everyone went outside to see the parade. With the marching band, the floats, the royalty, the grade school children riding decorated bicycles and the fire trucks carrying the honored football players and everything else that went into it, the parade was considered a big success.

At 7 o'clock that evening the floats were paraded around the football field, this time being judged. 1st place honors went to the Seniors, 2nd place to the Juniors, 3rd place to the Sophomore and honorable mention went to the Freshmen. Last years' King and Queen, Merle Negus and Janice Schoening, crowned Glenda and Jim as 1957's Homecoming King and Queen. Paula Adams and Mark Woolston acted as crown bearers.

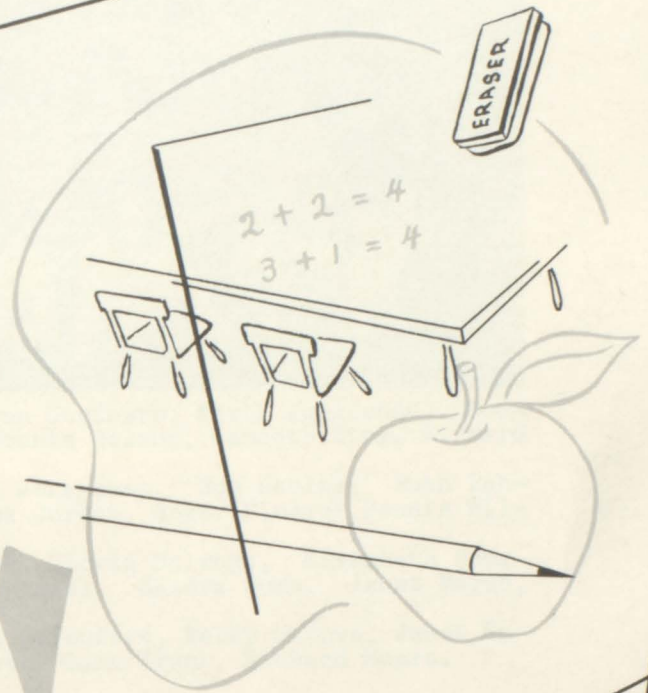

With Paullina as opponents our boys were spirited with a long time rivalry and defeated them 24-6. Scorers for Sutherland were: Bintz, Rahbausch, Olhausen, and Ahrens.

After the game a victory dance was held in the old gym which had been decorated by the cheerleaders for the dance. Billy Redmond and his Orchestra provided the music for dancing. Glenda was presented with one dozen red roses and the customary kiss from the King, Jim Aherens. The dance ended at 12:30 and once again the Homecoming activities were over for another year. With the winning of our game the 1957 Homecoming was considered a big success.
