Dedication

Mr. Kenneth Hoyne

The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength and skill.
A perfect man, nobly planned,
To win, to comfort, and command;
And yet a spirit still, and bright
With something of an angelic light.

We the senior class of 1961 dedicate this annual to Mr. Hoyne. Through this dedication we would like to express appreciation for all the time and effort he has contributed to our education. He has not only helped us with our academic work and extra curricular activities for these last six years, but he has also served as a counselor and a friend.

CLASS HISTORY

At the opening of the school year of 1948, 33 kindergarten children stepped bashfully from their mothers' sides into a world of books, colors, and more kids. Now, thirteen years later this class has graduated into an even more bewildering world, maybe not quite so bashful but still uncertain of what lies ahead.

Of the 33 original members of our class instructed by Mrs. Pierce, 15 continued together to graduate in the class of 1961. They were Gerald Lange, Judd Huffman, Dennis Jebsen, Kenneth Nelson, Marvin Guthridge, Terry Miles, Mary Jo Kosta, Carolyn Gottsch, Judy Struve, Frank Fogelman, Mary Metz, Arlys Cooper, Linda Miller, Marlene Nelson, and Daryl Einerwold. Eighteen other members--Johnnie Burgraff, Harold Rahbauch, Rene Ziemer, Donna Henry, Willamae Nagel, Allen Beatty, Marilyn Lyons, Kathy Youde, Margorie Raper, Ellen Hargus, Judy Ebert, Merlyn Munson, Jimmy Morris, Ronnie Olson, Robert Jalas, Dennis Rowse, Herman Kamradt, and Donna Larson left our class before we completed our thirteen years of school.

In first grade as our instructor, Mrs. Pierce, began teaching us our A,B,C's, we had six new pupils to study with us. They were LeRoy Rohde, Eleanor Blom, Kenneth Kummerfeld, Jerry Kruse, Mike Steuermann, and Mike Parnell. Donna Larson was not with us in first grade.

In second grade, four new pupils joined us. They were Gordon Peterson, Sharon Meyer, Frank Parket, and Karen King. Kathy Youde, Herman Kamradt, and Mike Parnell made new friends in other schools.

As our third grade teacher Mrs. Larson, advanced us farther in our work we were joined by Darlene Swenson, Juanita Marnell, and Darrell Litka. Jerry Kruse and Frank Parket moved to new communities during this time.

Because of the size of our fourth grade class, it was necessary to have two teachers--Miss Goodrich and Miss Rush. Vernon Riedemann became a new member of our class while Harry Rahbusch, Rene Ziemer, and Margorie Raper were no longer with us.

In fifth grade with Miss Lynch as our instructor, we added five new pupils to our class--Larry Steele, Danny Rogness, Donly Trogen, Nancy Gieser, and Dennis Gano, and lost four classmates--Gordon Peterson, Ellen Hargus, Juanita Marnell, and Judd Huffman. Judd Huffman returned to study with us later in school.

In sixth grade we again had two teachers--Miss Nelson and Miss Reuter. Phillip Steele, Marvin Mangels, Allen Steinbeck, Steve Rohwer, Bill Frerk, Keith Van Horne, Audrey DeBoom, and Dorothy Barry became our new classmates while Johnnie Burgraff, Ronnie Olson, and Donna Henry left to attend other schools.

As a new and exciting life opened to us during Junior High, Karen Minus and LeRoy Lapagard came to study with us. Marilyn Lyons, Allen Steinbeck, and Dennis Rowse left to attend seventh grade elsewhere.

John Leonard joined our eighth grade class and Merlyn Munson, Danny Rogness, Donly Trogen, Karen Minus, Dennis Gano, and LeRoy Lapagard found new classmates in other schools.

During our freshman year, while we were experiencing our first step into high school, five new pupils joined us from the Gaza area. They were Carolyn Sickelka, Cherly Craig, Judd Huffman, Robert Virgil, and Marlin Johannsen. Steve Rohwer, Keith Van Horne, and Marvin Mangels were not with us during this year.

During our sophomore year, we gained two new pupils, Jan Heifner and Larry Ewolddt. Donna Sierk also joined us later in this year.

Mike Hines and Dennes Draper became our new classmates in our junior year. Ruth Leget joined us late in our junior year. Allen Beatty, Vernon Riedemann, Marlin Johannsen, Willamae Nagel, Jan Heifner, Pam Taylor, and Darlene Swenson no longer attended high school at Sutherland.

During our senior year as we found we were doing many things for the last time, Bob Kelly became one of our classmates. Vernon Austin and Larry Shuck were also with us briefly. Jimmy Morris, Nancy Gieser, Bob Jalas, and Judy Ebert no longer attended Sutherland High School.

During our seemingly brief thirteen years in school we have had many rewarding experiences, made many lifetime friends, and enjoyed good times together. Now, as we leave these years behind, we know our thoughts will linger often on our past school days as we begin new lives for ourselves.

1961 SENIOR CLASS WILL

Know all men by these presents, and to all whom these presents may concern be it known that we, the Senior Class of 1961 of Sutherland High School in the city of Sutherland and the state of Iowa, being of sound mind and realizing that this is the last meeting of our class, do make and declare this our last will and testament.

ITEM I:

We, the Senior Class of 1961, do will and bequeath our ability to build prize winning homecoming floats to you, the Juniors.

ITEM II:

We, the Senior Class of 1961, do will and bequeath our ability to enjoy school and not get into trouble to you, the Sophomores.

ITEM III:

We, the Senior Class of 1961, do will and bequeath our good times at Sutherland High School to you, the Freshmen.

ITEM IV:

I, Dorothy Barry, do will and bequeath my many seats in study hall to you, Nancy Dau. It's not every one that gets to travel with just the gift of gab.

ITEM V:

I, Eleanor Blom, do will and bequeath my ability to get out of study halls to you Carol Schreiner.

ITEM VI:

I, Arlys Cooper, do will and bequeath my navy Plymouth to you, Helen Hibbing. You can depend upon it to take you to town in 9.6 minutes.

ITEM VII:

I, Cheryl Craig, do will and bequeath my height to you, Nelda Hagen. It helps in getting to the mirrors in the restrooms.

ITEM VIII:

I, Audrey DeBoom, do will and bequeath my ability to stay off the honor roll to you, Sondra Gulliford. You get just as used to it as being on the honor roll.

ITEM IX:

I, Dennis Draper, do will and bequeath my fear of studying to you, Steve Stienert. It makes the teachers wonder at times.

ITEM X:

I, Daryl Einerwold, do will and bequeath my ability to get called into Mr. Castor's office to you, Dennis Williams. It's real cozy in there.

ITEM XI:

I, Larry Ewoldt, do will and bequeath my shy and quiet ways to you, Karol Kastengren. They say silence is golden.

ITEM XII:

I, Frank Fogelman, do will and bequeath my ability to skip school to you, David Pullman. Really, it is a lot of fun.

ITEM XIII:

I, Bill Frerk, do will and bequeath my homecoming crown to some lucky junior boy and may it bring as much happiness to you as it did to me.

ITEM XIV:

I, Marvin Guthridge, do will and bequeath my Soltero plaque to you, David Pullman.

ITEM XV:

I, Micheal Hines, do will, and bequeath my ability to sling a paper together at the last minute to you, Janet Negus. It may come in handy next year.

ITEM XVI:

I, Judd Huffman, do will and bequeath my ability to drive a primed car for three years to you, Keith Jungjohan. You are well on the way.

ITEM XVII:

I, Dennis Jebson, do will and bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble and collect "brownie points" to you, Harrie Hendricks.

ITEM XVIII:

I, Bob Kelly, do will and bequeath my ability to break chemistry equipment to you Mary Draper. Nothing like breaking glass to create some excitement.

ITEM XIX:

I, Karen King, do will and bequeath my ability to dance with my brother to you, Loretta Negus.

ITEM XX:

I, Mary Jo Kosta, do will and bequeath my ability to stay on a "reducing diet" to you, Judy Leonard,

ITEM XXI:

I, Kenneth Kummerfeld, do will and bequeath my ability to sit in study hall and do nothing to you, Kathy Novak.

ITEM XXII:

I, Gerald Lange, do will and bequeath my ability to have fun in school and not get caught to you, Keith Jungjohan.

ITEM XXIII:

I, Ruth Leget, do will and bequeath my ability to stay home and study to you, Ruth Rahbusch.

ITEM XXIV:

I, John Leonard, do will and bequeath my ability to build hot rods to you, Merle Virgil.

ITEM XXV:

I, Mary Metz, do will and bequeath my braces to my "Big" little brother, Rich. It is easier to spark in the dark.

ITEM XXVI:

I, Sharon Meyer, do will and bequeath my cheerleading position to you, Mary Kastengren. I hope you have as much fun as I have had.

ITEM XXVII:

I, Terry Miles, do will and bequeath my ability to stay on the good side of the teachers to you, Tommy Nelson.

ITEM XXVIII:

I, Linda Miller, do will and bequeath my small feet to you, Becky Struve. I've found that small feet give just as good a foundation.

ITEM XXIX:

I, Kenny Nelson, do will and bequeath my non-athletic abilities to you, Jack Bintz.

ITEM XXX:

I, Marlene Nelson, do will and bequeath my early curfew to you, Helen Hibbing.

ITEM XXXI:

I, LeRoy Rohde, do will and bequeath my back seat in study hall to you, Benny Skaar

ITEM XXXII:

I, Carolyn Rohrbaugh, do will and bequeath my ability to laugh to you, Virginia Ross. It helps break the monotony.

ITEM XXXIII:

I, Donna Sierk, do will and bequeath nothing to anybody, because I am a greedy little miser at heart.

ITEM XXXIV:

I, Carolyn Sickelka, do will and bequeath my ability to create a new hair style every day to you, Mary Lange. Needless to say this is one way to draw attention.

ITEM XXXV:

I, Larry Steele, do will and bequeath my ability to miss the half mile run in track to you, Ralph Pullman.

ITEM XXXVI:

I, Phil Steele, do will and bequeath my bass position in boys quartet to you, Jo Jordan.

ITEM XXXVII:

I, Mike Steuermann do will and bequeath my ability to get along with the teachers to you, Ronnie Wetherell. It gets you out of a lot of work.

ITEM XXXVIII:

I, Judy Struve, do will and bequeath the honor of being homecoming queen to any deserving junior girl. May it be as wonderful for you as it was for me.

ITEM XXXIX:

I, Robert Virgil, do will and bequeath my beloved nickname, "Gus", to you Dick Kummerfeld. You never know, it might make you famous.
