THE 1979

WHO BETTER TO PRESENT THE 1979 DUKE THAN THE DUKE HIMSELF?

Dedication

We, the members of the Annual Staff, thought long and hard about what or whom to dedicate this annual to. During the school year, we really couldn't decide on anything. but during the end of the school year, and the beginning of school vacation, the problem began to solve itself. We found out that we were to lose 11 teachers and two other school employees this year through resignation.

We thought that it would be a good idea to dedicate the annual to these 13 people, since they have played such an important part in our lives these past years. So it is to these 13 people that our 1979 Duke is dedicated to: Dena Reeves, Colleen Friedrichsen, Beth Briden, Eileen Van Meetren, Kathy and Gene Thomsen, Cheryl and Frank Schnoes, Jon Fellows, Ben Taylor, Bill Quinn, James Lee, and Rick Giese.

We wish you 13 individuals luck in whatever the future may hold in store for you.

A Note From The Annual Staff

This year, the members of the annual staff thought a few words would be in order telling you about everything that goes into making this annual possible.

We figured that we'd start at the beginning. Members of the annual staff are chosen by the returning members of the previous years staff. These returning members number three, each of them being seniors. These seniors choose three more juniors plus one more senior to help put the next year's annual together. This has been the format for several years now, although it is going to change this next year.

So the staff consists of seven members plus an advisor, picked from the faculty by the school administration. This, the work started last summer when the three seniors attended a four day annual work shop. Later in the summer, the whole staff met to sell ads in Spencer & Cherokee. The staff also took two school days to finish selling ads in Cherokee, Pringhar, Paullina, and Hartley. We sold ads in Sutherland during Christmas vacation. So on the average, each member of the staff spent at least 20 to 25 hours selling ads.

But this was just the beginning of the work. During the beginning of the school year, the editor must work on setting up a diagram of how the book is to be put together and of how each page is going to look.

Also during the first part of the year, the staff sells its next year's annuals, which numbers approximately 180. Also, we hand out last year's annuals as they come in.

Finally, during the last half of the school year, work begins on the annual itself. This work then lasts until the end of June. The reason it takes so long is that it takes from two to five hours of total work to finish each page. All totaled it takes around 300 to 400 total hours of work to finish the annual itself. That just about wraps up the work for the whole, except for the clean-up for next years annual.

This year's staff wishes to thank many people, each of who has in some way contributed greatly to our work. First of all, we would like to thank each merchant who has put an ad in this annual. Next, we'd like to thank our principal, Mr. Stanford, for letting us have three days off from school work to sell ads and to do some other work.

Now we'd like to thank the Cherokee Daily Times and photographer Denny Holton, who provided us with some pictures of sports at no cost to the annual. We'd also like to thank Buntrock-Salie studios, who took most of the group shots for this book. And we would like to thank our advisor, Mr. Taylor, who did a super job in taking the rest of these pictures for our book.

Lastly we'd like to thank you, the people who bought one of these annuals and also all of you who bought one of our Tiger jerseys that we had for sale this winter. Without people buying ads and jerseys, we would never have made ends meet by just selling annuals alone. Thank-you all very, very much.

The annual staff also appreciates your comments on this book, good or bad. Also tell us of any changes you would like to see in next year's book. Both criticism and compliments are very much appreciated.

Junior High Football enjoyed another successful season winning six games and losing two. Emphasis was placed on learning the fundamentals of the game and the players made good improvement in those areas.

After losing two very close games to Primghar and Aurelia, the Eighth graders overpowered their remaining three opponents to complete a record of three wins and two losses.

The seventh-grade team also had a very successful season going through their schedule undefeated and unscored upon in their first year of organized football.

Football Cheerleaders

L. Clayberg, T. Rohrbaugh, J. Jungjohan, & D. Engel (kneeling) were the 7th grade cheerleaders.

S. Rehder, C. Ebel, T. DeBoom, W. Negus (kneeling) were the 8th grade cheerleaders.

This year, a very surprising thing happened: There were no Jr. High basketball cheerleaders. This was because almost every 7th and 8th grade girl went for basketball itself, thus no cheerleaders and no pictures.

The eighth grade boys continued to improve from their seventh grade year as their skills continued to develop. The eighth graders improved their record from the previous year, winning four games and losing five.

In their first year of interscholastic basketball, the seventh graders enjoyed a great deal of success. The boys began developing the skills and fundamentals of basketball which led them to a perfect record of 7 wins and no defeats. The first undefeated junior high team in quite a few years.

Girl's Basketball

There were so many girls that turned out for Junior High basketball, that there weren't enough girls left to have some cheerleaders this year. Thirty-three players and two managers participated in the program. The seventh graders won 2 games and lost 4, and the eighth grade team won 4 and lost 5. Even though the season records weren't too good, they had a good time playing and getting a little experience in playing basketball.

Fall

Plays

This fall the junior high put on three one act plays. They all worked very hard at them and did very well. The names of the plays were: Oh Baby, Wake Up and Love, and The Eskimos Have Landed. SHS SPORTS

This whole sports section is dedicated to Joni Rahbush. Joni was 1st team All Northwest Iowa and 5th team All-State in basketball, which we feel is something pretty special. Joni is featured in the top, right hand photo on this page.

Baseball

The Tigers, a greatly improved team compared to the past few years, ended the season with 7 wins and 11 losses. The success of the Tigers stemmed from the leadership of the five seniors: Gregg Durst, Dan Bird, Todd Sohn, Russ Steele and Mike Grothe.

The Tigers opened the season with four consecutive wins. After that the Tigers ran into some tough competition but still found themselves over the .500 mark after midseason. However, the Tigers managed to win only one of their last seven games due partially to the heavy summer rains that fell.

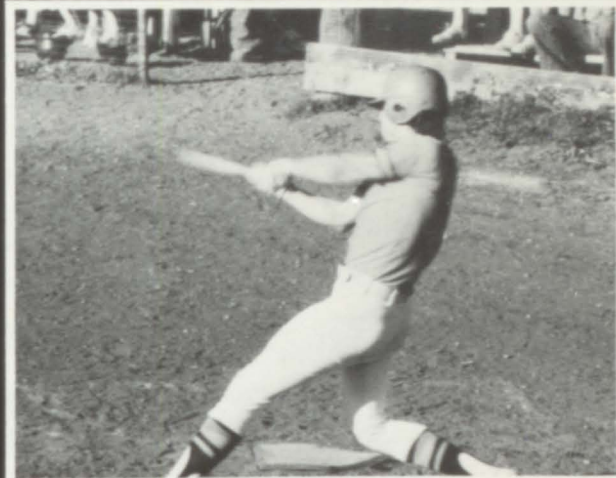

The Tigers finished 6th in the Sioux Valley Conference, tied with Hartley at 2 wins and 5 losses.

The Tiger hitting was much improved with Gregg Durst leading the way with a .339 average, followed closely by Dan Bird, Russ Steele, and Steve Rhode.

The defense also improved with Russ Steele making no errors in 109 innings. Todd Sohn did an outstanding job on the mound striking out 62 batters in 56-2/3 innings and issuing only 16 walks.

This year Sutherland Tiger football enjoyed it's best campaign in a number of years, with a even 4 win, 4 loss record. Coach Clayberg's Tigers were lead by these seven seniors: Kelley Jensen, Marv Back, Mark Weaver, Keith Rusch, Ric Sickelka, Chuck Van Overbeke, and Tom Rahbusch.

The season started out roughly with a close 14-12 loss to Clay Central, followed by 20-0, 34-17 losses to Paullina and Aurelia. The 4th game, homecoming, resulted in another close loss to Primghar, 14-11.

But after this, the Tigers came on to win their last 4 games 7-6, 13-7, 14-8, and 40-7 over Hartley, Sanborn, Milford, and Alta respectively.

There were 30 girls out for volleyball this year. They were led by Joni Rahbusch, Donna Nagel, Denise Amendt, Mona Weathers, Denise Dau, Liz Flinders, Becci Foley, and Barb Rahbusch, all seniors. The Tigerettes ended their winning season with a 10-4 record. The Tigerettes went into tournament play with high hopes. They won the first two games against Paullina (2-0) and Granville (2-0). But their tournament action was put to a halt by Sibley (2-1). The 1978 Volleyball Team played exceptionally well and showed great potential and sportsmanship.

Boy's Basketball

The Tigers finished the season with 6-12 record. Although the season was disappointing at times for both the coaches and the players, hopefully the young Tiger cagers gained valuable experience.

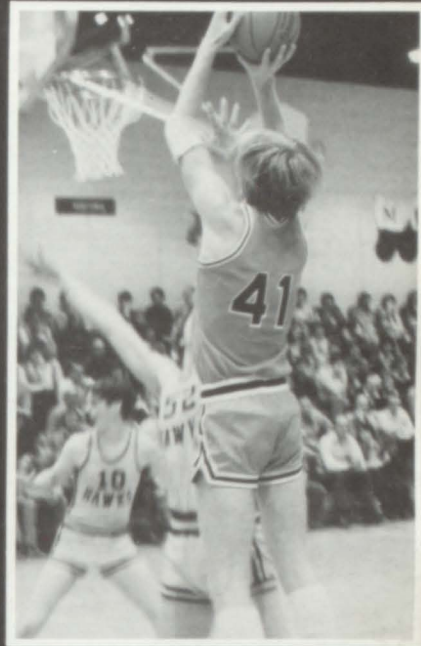

The team was lead by Marty Rahbusch and Mark Weaver as they tallied 14.6 and 10.5 points per game respectively. Both players were named to the second team All-Conference squad. Juniors Doug Dau and Steve Rhode and sophomore center David Youde received All-Conference Honorable Mention honors. Rahbusch also lead the team in rebounding with 12.2 per game. Junior forward Gary Kuehl, lead the team in free throw and field goal percentage at 48.8 and 69.2% clips.

Five lettermen along with a promising group of sophomores will return for the 1980 season.

They won their sectional in Orange City, then lost to Kingsley-Pierson in the second game of the district. Joni Rahbusch and Michelle Swanson were unanimous choices for first team all-conference. Kim Jurgensen was chosen for the second team, and Karla Jurgensen, Kathi DeBoom, and Rhonda Durst received honorable mention. Joni Rahbusch was also named to the first team N.W. Iowa, and she was chosen to the fifth team-I.D.P.A. all-state. The team picture (back, L to R) includes: B. Jurgensen, S. Stettinichs, K. Jurgensen, J. Rahbusch, R. Durst, M. Hill, K. The 1979 boy's track team faired very well this year. The team won the conference title at a coed conference meet in Paullina by 2 points over Milford. Most of the meets were close like this. The boys placed second under Milford by only ½ a point at the Alta Relays in the early part of the season. They placed 1st at the Hurricane Relays, 3rd at the Hawk and Paullina Relays, 4th at the Tomahawk Relays, 2nd at the Bulldog Relays, 2nd at the Pioneer Relays, and 2nd at the District meet in Holstein. Along with the team placement, 6 boys qualified for the state meet. Jeff Burns qualified in the pole vault and placed 2nd at state, Rick Sichelka in the high hurdles and placed 3rd at state, Dan Sweeney in the mile run, Chuck Van Overbeke in the discus, and Jon Negus, Dan Sweeney, Mark Weaver, and Rick Sichelka in the mile Relay. State Track Meet.

The track season was dampened by a lot of bad weather, with wind, rain and lots of cold. But this did not stop the girls from breaking some records. Records that were broken were the softball throw, 880 yd. relay, and the 400 yd. hurdles.

Georgette and Cindy Horstmann, Wendi Jungjohan and Mary Hill combined their efforts in the 880 yd. relay to go down to the state track meet with the time of 1:53.6

All 4 girls will be back for the 1980 season. So the prospects look good!

The 1979 Tigerette Squad had 16 members. The highlight of their year was placing first at the Sheldon Relays and the 880 yd. relay team making it to the

EVENINGS & ACTIVITIES

Event - 1979 . . .

Melodrama

The 1979 Dinner Theatre/Melodrama was presented on March 30 & 31st. The title of this year's show was "East Lynne". The dinner was prepared entirely by the students of SHS. Dinner, which consisted of ham or Swiss steak, baked potato, and salads, was served by the cast, waitresses, and waiters. Serving started at 6:00 p.m., followed by a sing-along and the show itself at 8:00. "East Lynne" was directed by Mr. Dickmeyer, with his assistant, Mr. Taylor, and student director, Liz Flinders.

The play itself took place in an English setting of an Victorian mansion. The play concerned a man named Archibald Carlyle, master of the mansion, East Lynne and the tragedy and triumph that befell him. His first wife, Lady Isabel, was taken away from him by the villain, Francis Levison. Archibald later remarried and eventually got even with Levison by beating him in a race for a seat in Parliament.

The play ended tragically, however, with Lady Isabel dying in Archibald's arms, begging him forgiveness. There were also many subplots in the play concerning the maids, butler, and Archibald's second wife's family. All in all, the play was again another success as it had been in past years.

Mr. Bird and Speech

Again this year as in the past, homecoming was enjoyed by all students, grades K-12 as well as many alumni and other spectators. Although the morning was dampened by rain, the festivities went as planned in the after. At 1:15, there was a pep rally. During the rally, the king and queen were chosen.

The queen candidates were Denise Dau, Julie Giese, Jil Hulser, Diane Tewes, and Mona Weathers. The king candidates were John Friedrichsen, David Sholly, Rick Sichelka, Chuck Van Overbeke, and Mark Weaver. Denise Dau and Ric Sichelka were chosen as queen and king. Denise was crowned by last years queen, Deb Litka. Ric was crowned by last year's king, Russ Steele.

The pep rally was lead by cheerleaders Sue Bina, Chris Clayberg, Jo Carnahan, Donna Dau, Kathi DeBoom, Nancy Olhausen, Tracy Steffens, and Kay Triplett.

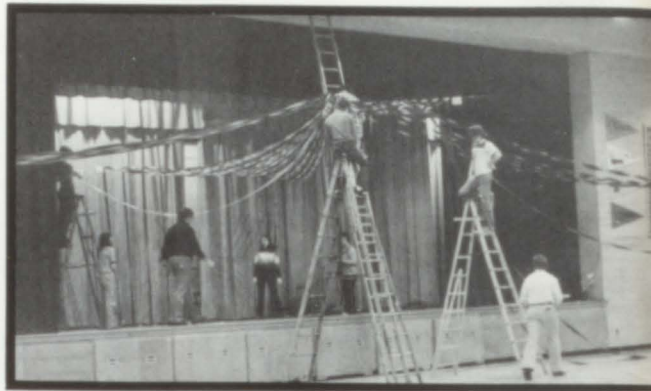

Following the rally, there was the traditional parade lead by the band under the direction of Mr. Hoyne.

This lead up to the game with Primghar Bulldogs which was the Tigers fourth and last defeat of the '78 season. The game began with an early score by Primghat and a PAT to make it 8-0. Then Bruce Fiddelke scored on a 19 yard run and a Joel Sichelka reception from Steve Rhode tied the score at 8-8. The Tigers then took an 11-8 lead on a Steve Rhode field goal before half-time but Primghar scored the final TD on a 24 yard reverse pass with the extra point.

The half-time festivities had been highlighted by a flaming twirling exhibition by Nancy Freeman, Renee Segelke, and Theresa Petersen.

Prom

The junior class invited the class of '79 to the Junior-Senior Prom on Saturday, April 21st, and as everyone had hoped it was a beautiful, clear, and warm night. The prom was held in the high school gym beginning with the banquet catered by L'Trio from Sheldon. Before the meal began, Sue Bina, President of the junior class, made a welcome speech and Chuck Van Overbeke responded with a thank-you. Mothers of the junior class and our eight waitresses and waiters helped to serve the delicious meal.

The waitresses and waiters were: Georgette Horstmann, Pat Van Overbeke, Robin Fiddelke, Deidre Dau, Jim Bird, Jeff Burns, Joel Sickelka, and Steve Bina. They dressed in outfits that they made to look like angels to fit into our theme.

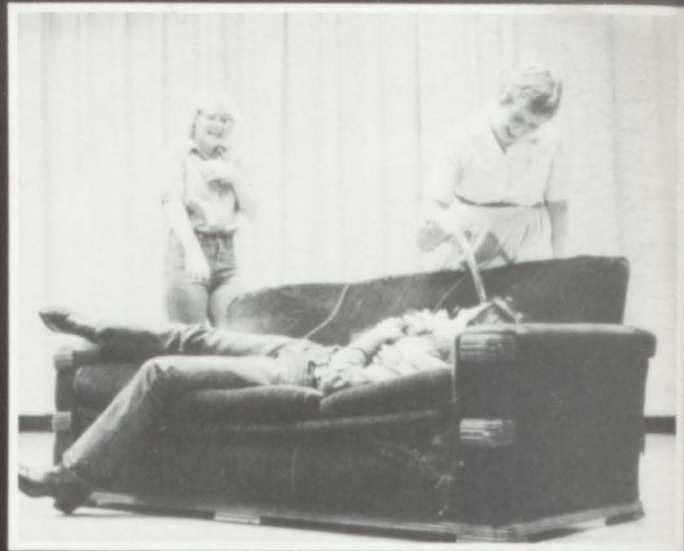

Following the dinner, "Wakefield" played for the dance. They top 40 songs, songs from popular albums, and songs from the 50's. Everyone seemed to enjoy this type of music, especially to dance to. The theme this year was "Heaven Can Wait", from the album "Bat Out of Hell" by Meatloaf.

The gym was decorated in two tones of blue with a silver staircase in the center and stars all over. Many people had their pictures taken in front of the staircase and they all turned out very well. The prom also went very well and was well attended by the juniors, seniors, and faculty. Everyone seemed to have a good time during the whole evening.

Fall Plays

"Death Of A Hired Man"

"Marriage Proposal, Western Style"

During Fall, 1978, the SHS drama department again presented three one-act plays. They were under the direction of Mr. Dickmeyer, assisted by Mr. Taylor.

The plays were as follows: "Marriage Proposal Western Style", a comedy which took place in an old Western style ranch setting. The cast for this play, pictured in photo "A", was (Row 1) Cheryl Amendt, Doug Maass, Kathi DeBoom, (Row 2) Mr. Dickmeyer and Liz Flinders.

The second play was "Death of a Hired Man", which was a serious production, taking place around the 30's. The cast for this play, pictured in photo "B", was (front) Richard Craven, Nancy Freeman, Rita Steele, and Todd Davis, (back) Mr. Taylor, Tracy Steffens, Denise amendt, and Joni Rahbusch.

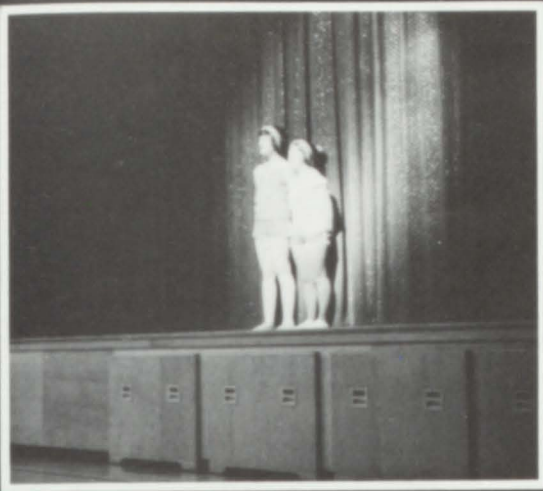

The last play was entitled "Louder, I Can't Hear You", which was a comical farce based on today's lack of communication. The cast for this play, pictured in Photo "C", was (front) Brent Alexander, (middle) John Friedrichsen, Jamie Johannsen, Troy Chindlund, (back) Penny Hill, Lori Steele. This play is also pictured in photo "D".

Children's Play

The Drama Class this year presented the children's play entitled, "The Prince Who Wouldn't Talk". The play, under the direction of Mr. Dickmeyer, was about a young prince who was never given either the chance or the reason to speak. But as all good stories do, the play has a happy ending when a young maiden helps the prince to talk.

The Cast included:
The King - Chuck Van Overbeke
The Queen - Pat Dailey
The Prince - Richard Craven

Donkey Ballgame

This year the "S" Club sponsored a "Donkey Ball Game" to raise some money for one of their many projects. Four teams were formed by people in the community to play basketball riding on donkeys. As you can see from these pictures, the donkeys got pretty stubborn at times and at times some people seemed to have a hard time staying on their donkey. Of course there were rules to this ball game as there are to any other game. Everyone must be on the donkey to shoot, stealing the ball from someone else's hands was illegal, and everyone must clean up after their own donkey no matter what it did. It was a very interesting game of basketball and we're sure that there were many reminders of the evening the day afterwards.

Event 79 . . .

Graduation

This year, graduation was held on May 20th. 46 Seniors graduated during the 2:00 pm ceremony. The class of '79's motto was "Today is Tomorrow's Yesterday!" The class colors were light green and dark green and the class flower was a cream rose.

The ceremony began with the processional, which was "Victory March". The senior class was led by two juniors, Danny Sweeney and Jeanine Wede. Next, Pastor Bischoff gave the invocation, then Joel Guthridge played a selection, "Introduction and Rondo" on his tuba.

Next on the list was the awards presentation. These following seniors were honored for having a 90 and above average throughout there four years of high school: Brent Alexander, Denise Amendt, Richard Craven, Todd Davis, Denise Dau, Martha Fisch, John Friedrichsen, Lynn Giese, James Jensen, Karla Jurgensen, Barbara Kreibbaum, Leanne Maass, Barbara Rahbusch, Jonice Rahbusch, David Sholly, Rick Sickelka, Loralynn Steele, Gretchen Straub, Lisa Streufert, Mona Weathers, and Mark Weaver.

These following scholarships were then handed out: American Bar Citizenship Award to Denise Dau, Woman's Club Scholarship to Teri Sohn, American Legion Auxiliary to Todd Davis and Teri Sohn, and the Vernon and Patrick Flinders Scholarship to Denise Amendt, David Sholly, and Karla Jurgensen.

Following the awards, Ric Sickelka, president of the class of '79, introduced the commencement speaker, Mr. Dana Vige, Sutherland High teacher and coach. Mr. Vige gave his speech on what his feelings were when he graduated in 1969. He then went on to explain what all happened in the year he graduated and what effects these news events had on the world. He then concluded his speech with a few words of advice to the graduating class.

After this, Mr. Rhode presented the senior class and Richard Hicks, president of the school board, then handed out the diplomas. Pastor Bischoff then gave the benediction. The ceremony was concluded with the congratulatory as the seniors marched off the stage into the congratulatory line.

1979 Seniors Class Prophecy

The date is May 21st, 1999. Yes folks, the graduating class of 1979 has just had its class reunion the night before. I'm a graduate of the great class of '79 and I'd thought I'd tell you about my trip back for the reunion.

It all started on my flight for Des Moines from New York. I got quite a surprise when I discovered that my pilot was none other than Liz Flinders and believe it or not the two stewardesses were Teri Sohn and Diane Tewes.

I looked in the seat beside me and I saw a short fellow all dressed up in Safari clothes. I looked a little closer and saw that it was David Sholly, big game hunter. He had just gotten back from hunting wild game in Africa. Sitting right next to him was a tall woman who turned out to be Joni Rahbusch, professional basketball player.

Behind me was another old SHS grad, but I didn't recognize him because of his short hair and suit. It was Mike Youde, author of the book, 'How to Skip School, Without Really Trying'. I decided to talk to Mike awhile and he told me that he had this strange guy following him wearing a trench coat. I saw the guy about ten rows back and knew who he was right away. It was Richard Craven, private detective. He was on assignment for Mary Woodyard, who was now a famous gossip columnist.

Then Mike and I started talking about some old SHS grads. I found out that Lynne Giese had married the president of Avon Cosmetics Corporation. Mike also mentioned that Becky Foley was an admiral in the U.S. Navy. Then I saw a newspaper and picked it up and started to read it.

The headline was about a swarm of killer bees that had gotten away from their beekeeper, which turned out to be our own Marvin Back. Then I turned to the farm news section and read about new American Agriculture leader, John Friedrichsen. I then started reading the sports page and discovered that Mona Weather's colt had won the Kentucky Derby and under the supervision of veterinarian, Mark Weaver.

It was then time for the live entertainment. The show began with a pretty corny comedian, who turned out to be the world-famous Rick Sichelka. The show was concluded with a performance by famous trumpet player and musician, Lori Steele. After the show, stewardesses Teri and Diane told us we were ready to land.

When we got off of the plane in Des Moines, we were greeted by Air Force General, Chuck Van Overbeke and college professor, Martha Fisch. I then realized that I was short on money so I went to get a loan at one of Des Moines' largest banks. I was personally waited on by the bank's president, Brent Alexander. He informed me that he couldn't make it to the class reunion but his two accountants, Barb Kreibaum and Todd Davis would.

I went back to the airport to take another flight in a small plane to Cherokee. Some of my fellow passengers turned out to be other '79 grads. There was Denise Dau, who was now a nursery school teacher in Eastern Iowa. Denise Amendt, who was an optometrist's assistant, was also on the flight. She was talking to legal secretaries, Lisa Struefert and Julie Giese.

We arrived in Cherokee and Leanne Maass, who was now working as a nurse in Sioux Valley Hospital, drove us to Sutherland. Leanne's car, which wasn't running too well, finally broke down just as we got to Sutherland. We coasted into Jim Jensen's garage and car lot, where Jim's two top mechanics, Bruce Engelke and Kent Jurgensen worked on Leanne's car. While we waited, I talked to Jim's Secretary, Jill Hulser for awhile.

Then I walked down to the Old P.O., which was now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Jensen. Mrs. Jensen (who used to be the former Karla Jurgensen) told me that the class reunion was supposed to start in an hour in the back of the P.O. So by now everybody who I'd seen earlier and talked to started arriving in town. Also the people who were living around Sutherland started to come.

Well, the reunion went pretty well with all but six of the class members attending. I also got the opportunity to talk with the rest of my classmates. Gretchen Straub was now the owner of the old Millie's Rest Home and Sarah Woodyard was her head nurse. Tim Bierman was now a big cattle rancher. Ray Nagel, Keith Rusch, and Shelley Tewes were now farming also. Shelley Schueder was an elementary teacher and Donna Nagel a P.E. teacher. David Woolston had slowly climbed up and was now the manager of group 21. Chris Nielsen and Judy Schoening had been married for over 19 years. Deb Cooper and Barb Rahbusch were also housewives with families.

As I was leaving the P.O., I finally ran into my last classmate that I hadn't heard about, Tom Rahbusch. Tom was the bouncer at a local disco after serving 15 years in the Army.

When I think back on it, it hardly seems possible that we've been out of school for 20 years now. It seems like only yesterday that we were walking the halls of good ol' SHS. I hope we all make it back for the 30th anniversary of our graduation in the year 2009.
